the herald

IS PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY JAMES L. W. ELLIS, [To, whom all communications on business must be addressed, pre-paid.]

TERMS. Per annum, in advance, : : $2 00 Three copies, in advance, : : 5 00

TO CLUBS

Of 10 the Herald will be $1 50 per copy Of 20 $1 25 Of 30 $1 00 The money must always accompany the VOL, 3. names of Club subscribers.

J. D. NOURSE, Editor.

ship, for it was higher and more capacious

he heaved a deep sigh, and said "God send.

Devoted to Politics, Literature, Science, Commerce and News.

J. L. W. ELLIS, Publisher.

Coming to Life.

AN ARKANSAS BEAR STORY.

BY NED BUNTLINE.

ug-out, with my old dog Bowler; had my old smooth-bore along, in course. -

Jist as I got along where Grave's cane is so thick that a rattle-snake can't crawl through without wearin' off half its rattles. I smelt bar, and so did

Bowler, I looked and thar wer' two o' the cussedest big ones, a he and a year old steers, sure as I'm white. I don't believe me' try it on.

and the hole she'd got in at.

mough to make a preacher cuss.

Memphis Express.

The First Steamboat.

To the Editor of the Commonwealth:

where the illustrious dead repose.

successful. He succeeded in propellthe old he and go home.

BARDSTOWN, NELSON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MARCH 31, 1853.

NO. 11.

ADVERTISING.

One Square, ten lines or less, first insertion, .. $0 75

he number of times it is to be ordered out, and charged accordingly.

Those who advertise for six months or one year have the privilege of changing and renewing not exceeding once in three weeks.

We hope that the above will be plain enough to be understood by all -and that all who adver tise will act in accordance with our requirements, in stead of trying for hours to lower our prices. The bargaining. This is without respect to persons: we some fine trees was a building which Mary too painful to allow him to go into detail. Foreman of the Office has no time to spend in have no disposition to do work cheaper for a close- rightly conjectured to be a place of worfisted customer than for our liberal patrons, who are willing to let Printers live.

The HERALD bas an extensive circulation and business men'will find it adviantageous to evidently been bestowed upon its construcmake use of its columns as a means of communicating with the public generally.

CASH.

Since we have enlarged the BARDSTOWN enable us to meet promptly the demands on us for CASH for Paper, Ink, Labor, Office-rent &c., &c. advertise yearly we expect payments quarterly.

For alltransient Job Work and Advertising, the money must be paid when the work is donerule is without exception.

The following work is secured by Copy-right.

THE

FOREST UNIGHTS

Early Times in Kentucky.

BY J D. NOURSE. CHAPTER XVI.

moted of women, children, and men too old eye he looked upon her at first with sur. discrepancy between his ideal of spirring the short walks she was allowed to sweet and tremalous voice. take. When she came to know fully "You look sad and weary, my daughter; turn to the assault with fresh vigor .resolved to make her escape if possible .- in this wilderness." She pruden ly repressed all external to- Mary's eyes filled with tears as the kind alone was able to save him from per- massacre and conflagration. of the Young Ottawa Indian, whom Mar- and in answer to the questions of her host at, as already mentioned, had brought with gave him an account of the circumstances him to the village. This boy, for he was which had caused her to seek a refuge in only eighteen, though stout and active for his village, with which the reader is already that age, had been directed by the Cana- sufficiently acquainted. He listened with d'an to keep a strict watch upen all the compassionate sympathy to her narration, movements of Mary, with the promise of which seemed to stir in his own soul sora rich reward in case she was kept safely rowful memories, for when she concluded,

Mary never went out with one or more trouble and affliction upon us to raise our of the Indian women that she did not no- thoughts and hearts to him, and make us a stealthy but lynx-eyed watchfulness .- have no continuing city here." How to elude him she could not imagine, The evening closed in, and after the old time when Marat might be expected to re- entered, seated themselves, and remained of darkness and cruelty. tunity presented itself of effecting her es- some passages of Scripture which he ac- her who was so dear to him to the dan-until his return from Kentucky.

warmly natached to Mary, who at length for guidance throughout all the sad and be cast, he would cherish her memory ... My daughter was only three years old. ventured to open her heart to the young thorry pilgriniage of life, for a blessed and and live in hope of meeting her in but her presence and innocent prattle took girl, and to her great joy found the Indian glorious reunion with beloved and departed heaven. triends in those realms of light, where the maiden willing to assist her in escaping .- soft healing hand of the Infinite Father The girl had but little regard for any of the should wipe away all tears from every eye. her soft eyelashes bedewed with tears, of the Delaware warriors were still at the tribe except her own brother, and she was His prayer was very short and his language "I will go with you; I would sooner village, when late one night, or rather in well satisfied that he would not be displeased at the deliverance of the captive from the power of his and her enemies.

Wery simple, yet Mary could not help remarking the singular force and beauty of some of his expressions. His voice, all along subdued and tremulous, became almost along, friendless, perhaps sick and despite.

The foltower of the captive simple, yet Mary could not help remarking the singular force and beauty of some of his expressions. His voice, all along subdued and tremulous, became almost alone, friendless, perhaps sick and despite.

The foltower of the captive simple, yet Mary could not help remarking the singular force and beauty of some of his expressions. His voice, all alone, friendless, perhaps sick and despite.

The foltower of the captive simple, yet Mary could not help remarking the singular force and beauty of some of his expressions. His voice, all alone, friendless, perhaps sick and despite. She gave Mary to understand by signs and signs are signs as signs and signs and signs are signs as signs and signs are signs as signs and signs are signs as signs are signs as signs and signs are signs as signs are signs as signs and signs are signs as signs are signs as signs and signs are signs as signs as signs as signs are signs as signs as signs are signs as si a few words of broken English, that some the loved and lost beyond the tomb, as if one near to soothe and console you. - where my child slept with an Indian wo shire, hooked with unutterable emotion. miles below the village, on the same stream, was a small settlement of Christian Indilet that night, in a small room adjoining

What mare could be ans under the care of a Moravian mission- that of the good missionary, she was agiary, who would afford her a refuge, or per- tated by various and unwonted feelings .- bliss were compressed into that mo- my child in his arms, screaming with terror, versation ensued: haps send some of his people with her to Soothed and consoled by kindness and ment. They were married, and soon and bade me follow him in the Delaware Clergyman-(shouting)-'How old Detroit. As for the young Ottawa, who fortunately was in love with her, she underwhich she had lately passed, she could took to keep him out of the way. "

As Marat might return at any time, Mary trembled with suspense, until the Indian and the Wyandot village, restored to her impetuosity and treedom from its hear frequent shots and cries at no great be food for worms!' maiden respected at the lodge and gave her a sign to follow. They took their way down the river in silence for about a mile, when the Indian girl stopped, and pointing when the Indian girl stopped, and pointing when the Indian girl stopped, and an eager curiosity to know the river in silence for about a mile, when the Indian girl stopped, and pointing the maintain cradle. The missionary and distance.

The man who had carried off my child did you say? Are you troubled with 'em? I never know'd grow'd-up men folks to be autiful lives and arduous labors of the conflict was still raging. I was porsuing bim with as much speed as I away very suddenly after that question are recollections all the Wyandot village, restored to her impetuosity and treedom from its mountain cradle. The missionary and distance.

Old Woman—(horrified)—Worms. did you say? Are you troubled with 'em? I never know'd grow'd-up men folks to be autiful lives and arduous labors of in which the conflict was still raging. I was porsuing bim with as much speed as I away very suddenly after that question are recollections all the Wyandot village, restored to her recollections all the wividness of reality, mountain cradle. The missionary and distance.

The man who had carried off my child did you say? Are you troubled with 'em?' I never know'd grow'd-up men folks to have 'em bad.' out to Mary the course she must pursue, his history. She was somehow persuaded them a considerable number of Indians, could make when I was struck down by a away very suddenly after that question interrupted her expressions of gratitude by that he had passed through scenes of unchiefly of the Delaware tribe, whom random bullet and lost all consciousness. and answer!

BARDSTOV

of woods that lined the river, with a beat- he might be willing to disclose. When she awoke next morning, the first 23 ing heart walked on briskly, until she saw thing she thought of was her determination stated, if not stated it will remain in the paper until into small fields and gardens which were giving her an account of some improvecarefully and even tastefully cultivated.— ments he had lately made, when he hap-The cabins were well built, and the crevices been driven away some years before from between the neatly hewn logs were care. flourishing settlements on the Muskingum. before the doors, and vines were climbing the next enapter the educations from other rative, supplying omissions from other over the eaves. Apart from the rest, under sources, especially where the subject was

CHAPTER XVII.

than any of the others and more pains had expression, as if the spirit that looked grew with his growth and strengthened manner: brough them, chastened and refined by deep with his strength, towards thosh lofty The Canadian Indians, in alliance with and superstition has been the bitterest of sorrow from the last traces of earthly pas. themes whice are so congenial to a fersorrow from the last traces of earthly pas. themes whice are so congeniar to a resistance of the Susquehanna. her before I die, and lead her to the Savior, sion and raised to God and heaven, had no vid and imaginative mind. But religion One cold night the missionary and his and implant in her soul the seeds of knowlthoughts for any thing in this life except its was little more than a poetical senti. Gamily were sitting quietly around the bla. edge and virtue. Though not very old in duties and its kindly sympathies. Mary ment with him, until he reached that crit- zing hearth, when they were startled by a years, I feel that my race is nearly run, was awed and at the same time irresistibly ical age when the passions began to de- warwhoop. Several Christian Indians and that I draw near to that place where person, and at once bent her steps towards shaken by the most terrible conflicts. and child, and calling upon him to follow, weary are at rest." The population of the village now con- his dwelling. When she had caught his He be an to be conscious of the vast cutions of Marat, and she resolved to leave household, and the young stranger who had household, and the young stranger who had The sister of Warpath had become for strength against sorrow and temptation, earth, but that, wherever his lot might narrative.

"Henry," said the noble girl, with which had been laid upon me. But my Fear not for me; God will be with us man who had nursed her from infancy, - hospitality, yet at the same time excited by after left their father-land to find a tongue, as he rushed out of the house close- are you, my good Madam?" which she had lately passed, she could scarcely realize that it was not all the freak of a distempered imagination. Whenever the beautiful Susquehanna, not far beended errand on which she had sent could wear away. She finally fell asleep knowledge of civilization.

him. She then turned back to the village, with a resolution to learn from his own lips They were happy, for all the energy ing of a deep glen that ran up among the while Mary, keeping within the narrow strip on the morrow as much of his former life as of their souls, which was not given to hills. All was silent. I had a dreadful God and their duties, was given to pain in my head, and felt very cold. All each other and their only child, a girl, back upon me with terrible distinct-... 66 00 before her a small cluster of wooden build- of the preceding night. But the good whose rosy cheeks, laughing blue eyes, ness. I crawled out of the bushes and -$10 50 ings, which, in neatness and external to- missionary was occupied the greater part and flaxen curls made her the very im- attempted to rise. I gained my feet, but kens of comfort and industry, formed a re- of the day with the affairs of his people, age of what her mother had been at the instantly staggered and fell back. increasing around them, and rapidly For days afterwards I kne w nothing of Transient Advertisers will be required to pay such a scene in that wilderness. A conternoon as they sat under the shade of some rising from the degradation of barbariwhat was passing around me. That I lived hunting grounds,) on the other side of acted as an impelling power upon the in advance. When an Advertisement is handed in siderable tract of fertile land was divided fine trees in front of the cottage, he was ism under the kindly influence of that at all was almost a miracle, but it was the must be siderable tract of fertile land was divided fine trees in front of the cottage, he was ism under the kindly influence of that at all was almost a miracle, but it was the Mississippi. great civilizer of mankind, religion .- good pleasure of my blessed Master, who Tkey both had an eye for the beauties that work for me still to do in this world, that I should recover. I was found by of nature, and they felt, as they looked some of my people, who had escaped the fully closed with stones and mortar. Here She seized the occasion to draw him out surrounded their wilderness home, the glen at the entrance of which I had fallen, was true. He'd even bet whiskey on water, and needing only a pint at a time, and there flowering shrubs had been set out upon the history of his life. We give in beautiful valley, already smiling with and who ventured to return next day to the the results of their judicious benevo- ruins of their homes. The affectionate lence, and the glorious river which and to their care and attention, under God, flashed along before their door, that all I owe my life. They patched up for me a these things belonged to Him whose temporary shelter until a comfortable cabservants they were.

Henry Rosenberg was a native of greater part of that tremendous strug- my attendants about my daughter, but no-Moravia, and his family was one of gle between France and England, which thing had been heard of her since that Mary was soothed and delighted by this those who left their homes and estab- shook the whole world from the banks dreadful night, and in the agony of my scene, so unlooked for in a region of bar- lished themselves at Hernhut, on the of the Ganges to those of the Missis- who had so greatly afflicted me. But blessed barism, and she entered the village with estate of the Count Zinzendorf, in or- sippi, in which the genius and audacity be His name, He had pity on my infimity a confident expectation of a kind and hos- der that they might enjoy, in peace, of the great Earl of Chatham finally and gave me grace to submit myself hum-HERALD our expenses have been considerably increased; we are therefore compelled to adopt the pitable reception. She noticed several their own modes of worship, and their crushed the French power in Asia and bly to his Providence. CASH SYSTEM. Our object in doing this, is to Indians, coarsely but decently clad, enga. own religious and social institutions. America, and placed the Anglo-Saxon removed with my little flock to the banks removed with my little flock to the banks. ged in various rural occupations, but the The young Henry, at an early age, race in the van of modern civilization. of the Muskingum. There we lived quiobject that specially arrested her attention manifested uncomma abilities, accom- The little, lovely, peaceful existence of etly for some years, but the whites, on acas as well as for our customers. From those who was a very venerable man standing bareheaded in the door of one of the cottages. turn of mind. Cut off from worldly would seem to have been out of the dians of the same tribe, without taking the His silver locks were parted over a lofty pleasures, and surrounded by a com- way of this mighty contest; yet it was trouble to inquire whether my people had brow, and fell down almost to his shoul. munity of humble and spiritual-minded destined to be drawn, a small chrystal this, the last resting place, I trust , in my ders. His face was thin and pa'e, and bore people, who spent the greater part of drop, showing the prismatic haes of weary pilgrimage. the traces of severe suffering, long ago the time, which was not given to pro- heaven, into that wild turbid Maelstrom I have sought my daughter far and near scothed into peace by humble and patient ductive industry, in devotional exer- which was devouring nations and em- but in vain. I know not whether my southed into peace by humble and patient ductive industry, in development extends and entry poor child be among the living or the submission. His eyes had an indefinable cises, he received a strong bias which pires. It happened in the following dead. The possibility that she may have hurried them away to a rude shealing among the hills.

to go with the warriors to battle. Mary prise and solicitude; then his face lighted itual perfection, and the earthly and would not desert his people in their ex- back a comrade to the Wyandot village, was at first closely confined the greater up with a benevolent smile, as he said in sensual nature that had risen up with tremity. Running towards the quarter and lounged about himself the whole evenpart of the time, and strictly watched du- English, with a slight foreign accent in his in him. He fought off the suggestions whence the alarm proceeded, he heard anof sensual passion, but they would re- other wild war-cry followed by sharp firing, ling of the missionary, for what purpose clumb up it forty feet to his hole, towand when he reached the spot he found and with what results will appear hereafte what disposition the council had made of come in and rest, and then you can tell He began to think himself the vilest wares, friends of the English, who had her, and that Marat might be expected to me what has caused one so young and del- and weakest of mortals, and from the fallen upon the trail of the French Indians, return in a few weeks, she was eager and icete to be traveling alone and on foot depths of his despair he prayed with and tollowing it to the Moravian village, strong cries and tears to Him, who had arrived just in time to save it from several entertaining anecdotes of Lord Nel- yelpin' like a wolf. Blame my skin, kens of her anxiety, and recollecting what old man ushered her into the best room of ishing in the wiles of the Evil One. Marston had told her of his conduct while his humble abode, and placed a stool for Henry had become attached to a beau- as they were beloved even by that part of torture of seeing men flogged," he came out the line that held the dug-out and it among the Indians, she treated her guard her to sit down. He then caused his peoin such a manner that supposing her to be ple to prepare a simple repast of which he eyes, and long flaxen tresses. In his change their manners and religion, the the gangway, made his bow to the officers, life. in such a manner that supposing her to be contented with her situation, they began to relax their vigilance. There was one sense of his kindness, rather than from apeye ever upon her however. It was that petite, she ate sparingly of the plain supper, gentle as she was, must look upon him emies might be expected soon to make in The lash was instantly applied, and, with abhorrence. His gloom and neg- revenge for their defeat. Mr. Rosenberg consequently, the sufferer exclaimed: "forlect of her caused the poor girl many now had another cause of anxiety. His give me, Admiral, forgive me!" secret and bitter tears. The fact, that hills, showed symptoms of an inflamatory look round with wild anxiety, and as all she still loved him quite as deeply and affection, accompanied by high fever. bis officers kept silence, he would say, devotedly as he loved her, accidentally She grew worse rapidly, and her husband "What! none of you speak for him?came to his knowledge, and occasion- soon saw, with unutterable anguish, that Avast! cast him off!" And then added to ed him a new and bitter conflict. He all his care, and the care of the Indians, the culprit, "Jack, in the day of battle, he had made to consecrate his whole husky voice, when he came to this part of a landsman and few pitied him. His of he who was the first and successful one next Sabbath, the bereaved pair made remaining existence on earth to Him his story, "saw fit in his wis low to chastise fence was drunkenness. As he was being that applied, to the propulsion of boats, their appearance at church, clad in who had died for him, and his heart me by taking away the idol of my heart. tied up, a young girl, contrary to all rules, the power of steam, was not mentioned habiliments of woe, their faces exprestice this imp dogging her footsteps with feel that we are pilgrims and strangers, and swelled within him at the thought that On the third day of her sickness she died in rushed through the officers, and, falling on he might be the chosen instrument of just before her death her mind became clear were the articles of war, exclaiming:— the writer to do justice to the ingenious carrying the light and glorious bless- and there was a sweet smile upon her face, "Pray, forgive him, your honor, and he shall citizen, whose enterprise gave Ameriand week after week passed away, and the man had lighted his lamp several Indians ings of the gospel into the habitations as if she already heard the music before never offend again. the Throne. She whispered to me; ,'Do "Your face," said Nelson, "is a securiturn was approaching, and still no oppor- silent and attentive, while the pastor read But how could be think of exposing not grieve. I am happy; we will meet ty for his good behavior, Let him go, the son of Him who had died for her. They !y creature in his care. cape. She thought too of other difficul- companied with a few plain and feeling gers and hardships of a distant and inties which almost plunged her into despair. remarks. Then after chanting a hymn to hospitable clime. On one occasion he came back alone to my desolate hearth, was William Pye. She knew of no place of refuge and safety a sweet yet solemn air which thrilled to poured out his whole soul to her in all still not wholly desolate, for my little Sonearer than Detroit, and how could she, a delicate female, traverse the wilds which lay had ever done in her bosom, they all knell had ever done in her bosom ever done in her bosom ever done in her terror, and I took her in my arms to soothe her, little thinking that she too was soon -The Roman Journal of the 11th inst. between that town and the Wyandot vil- down, and the old man poured out his he spoke with enthusiasm of the glori- to be taken from me." The old man announces the departure of the King of lage. Yet any dangers and hardships thanks for the blessings of the day and of- ous work to which he had been called, paused, for his utterance was choked; his Bavaria from Rome for Naples on the would be preferable to the revolting perse. fered up the warm and simple petition of and which he must do or perish eter- breast heaved, and the big tears found their 10th. King Maximilian has not left way down his pale and furrowed cheeks, a very favorable impression on the court while Mary wept like a child. When he of Rome. In his interviews with Pius the village at all hazards before his return. household, and the young stranger who had sought shelter beneath his roof. He prayed away, perhaps never to see her again on recovered his composure he resumed his IX, instead of kissing the hand of the Virginia.

It was so dark I could see nothing. A A young clergyman visiting the es intimating that there was no time to be lost, as the Ottawa would soon return from the such a manner as to leave upon his mind an impression that neither time ner change tianity, and somewhat of the arts and ing village that I was lying under a shelf marks that a liberal use of the real is marks that a liberal use of the real is marks that a liberal use of the real is marks that a liberal use of the real is marks that a liberal use of the real is marks that a liberal use of the real is marks that a liberal use of the real is marks.

the scenes I had lately passed through came creatures did all for me that they could, in could be built, to which I was removed. After I came to my senses I lay many Such was their situation during the many weeks helpless as an infant. I asked any share in them or not, drove us away to been reared among savages in ignorance

Mary had been so much engrossed by the sad story of her host, that she did not notice Mr. Rosenberg did not follow, for he the young Ottawa, who having seen her, sent

TO BE CONTINUED.

LORD NELSON. -An English writer tells straight out and in it sat old Bowler, son, among which are the following:- He if it isn't as true as I'm white. The missionary family was soon sees. was loth to inflict punishment, and when he

THE POPE AND THE KING OF BAVARIA. Pope, a tribute of respect which even the arch-heretic Nicholas maintained a not withhold, the King of Russia did stiff, soldier-like bearing, and contented himself with paying ordinary civilities to the Sovereign Pontiff. The Catholic journals denounce him as half a Protestant, and the native Roman no

What more could be said. Ages of man brushed by me into the room I was tablishment seated himself by the side about to enter, returned in a moment with of a deaf old woman, when this con-

the thought of Marat and his Ottawa spy low where it rushes forth in its youthful was no one very near me, though I could years shall have passed over me, I shall ing village that I was lying under a shel- marks that a liberal use of the rod is received the name of "Mad Rumsey." don't you ask for toast? I like toast a ving seek, among bushes, near the open- the only way to make boys smart. "Rumsey's boat was about fifty feet great deal the beat" I ving cok, among bushes, near the open- the only way to make boys smart.

We have, since the expiration of the 2nd volume of the Herald, made several very necessary and andsome additions to our JOB OFFICE, which will enable us to get up our work in a style thatcan notfail to please BOOKS, PAMPHLETS, CARDS, BLANKS, BALL TICKETS BILLS,

POSTERS, BILL-HEADS, &O., &O., will be printed on fine white or fancy paper, with Black, Blue, or Red Ink. on short notice. We are determined to use all means within our power to please those whof avor as with their patronage.

TGIVE US A CALL.

rawar

long and was propelled by a pump work' ed by a steam engine, which forced a quantity of water up through the keel; the valve was then shut by the return of the stroke, which at the same time forced the water through a channel or Who hasn't heard of old Pete Beeves, pipe, a few inches square, lying above. the great bear hunter, and the biggest or paralled to the keelson, out at the story teller (I beg his ghost-ship's par- stern, under the water. The impetus don, for Pete has gone up to the happy channel against the exterior water. vessel. The re-action of the effluent Pete used to tell the following Bear | water propelled her at the rate above story, and up to the hour of his death mentioned, when loaded with three tons was ever ready to swear by a stack of which maintain the weight of her engine, upon the forest-clad mountains that massacre by taking refuge in the deep bibles as high as cord wood, that it boiler only held about five gallons of space of five barrels of flour, her fuel was man. Pete used to tell it in this way: coal, from four to six bushels in twelve "I was down on Coave's Bayou, in a

hours." After having succeeded in his experiment, Rumsey knew that if he could only get skillful workmen enough to build a large vessel, his fortune would be made, and knowing that he never would succeed in America, resolved to go to England. Embarrassments of a she, that ever you did see, big as two pecuniary nature attended him in Englet drive, and the old he tumbled over, other things, in order to supply himself main object, and apply himself to with the means to resume it.

and the she broke through the cane like a quarter hoss that's flew the track. I Rumsey consented at the request of addled in the dug-out and give the old several gentlemen, to give a public trial e a dig with my knife, add then I tied the boat's bow-line fast to him to keep he arose to begin his lecture, and was t from driftin' off, for he'd fell close to observed to be very much agitated; the water, and I tied old Bowler in some one near handed him a glass of tother end to watch my property, and water, he thanked the audience, for their to keep him from munchin', for that kind attendance, in a few incoherent dog was powerful fond of bar meat, sentences-sunk into his chair, and never spoke again. He was seized with a "Then I put off after the she. The cussed critter led me a tremendous Thus perished a martyr to civilization, some journey in a cane brake-ef you whose works constitute the peculiar glory of our times, and from so long a Then the beast had clum a tree about seventy feet high, more or less, and Soon after the death of Rumsey, his thar warn't a limb between the ground boat was put into operation upon the Thames, in 1793.

I never was much at climbin', so I in up the she and started back to skin Rumsey and Fitch as to the originality of their respective inventions. In the "When I got whar I'd left the dugjournals of the House of Representatives was awed and at the same time irresistibly related to the wicked cease from troubling, and the ler barkin' and yelpin' and I started on we first into the room, snatched up his wife the wicked cease from troubling, and the ler barkin' and yelpin' and I started on we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first the wicked cease from troubling, and the ler barkin' and yelpin' and I started on we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first the wicked cease from troubling, and the ler barkin' and yelpin' and I started on we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first the wicked cease from troubling, and the ler barkin' and yelpin' and I started on we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first the wicked cease from troubling, and the ler barkin' and yelpin' and I started on we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first the wicked cease from troubling, and the ler barkin' and yelpin' and I started on we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow warm to a bloom to start warm t that: I neard old bow we first warm t that: I neard old bow warm to a bloom to start warm t that: I neard old bow warm to a bloom to start warm t that: I neard old bow warm to a bloom to start warm t that: I neard old bow warm to a bloom to start warm t that: I neard old bow warm to a bloom to start warm to sta the trail of his noise, and com to a big and House of Representatives, &c., that tree, and thar I seed a sight that was the President be, and he is hereby re-That infernal he bar had come to life, quested, to present to James Rumsey, and dragged the dug out, dog and all, junior, the son, and only surviving child of James Rumsey, deceased, a suitable to a big water oak, or some such tree, gold medal, commemorative of his purty nigh a quarter through the cane father's services and high agency in giving the dug-out up, and had gone down giving to the world the senefit of the into the hole the length of the bowis at present residing in Kentucky. line, and had got the bow of the dugout into the hole. The starn stuck

> "See Henning's Statutes; vol 11. page 502. 'Steward's Auccdotes of the Steam Engine

SPICY ANECDOTES.

The "Editor's Table" of the Knicker-

"Several years since, there resided in Thus endeth Pete Beeve's Bear story. the town of W-, (Mass.,) two very worthy maiden ladies, having a sister, supposed to be in a deep consumption. living in the State of Pennsylvania .-One day a letter was received by these ladies from a friend, at whose house their sister was visiting. The Rev. had found a partial relief from his mental tortures in a solemn vow which mental tortures in a solemn vow which "My God" said the poor old man in a solemn was about to be flogged—

A poor man was about to be flogged therein. "And I cannot doubt that a sing deep and heart felt grief as the calls first boat moved by steam." and sanctified unto them for their spiritual who, although a native of this country, good, etc., etc. A funeral sermon was yet, his remains were placed in West. preached, in which the speaker descantagain," and then she went home to the bo- fellow cannot be bad who has such a love. mintster Abbey, London, the place ed upon the many virtues of the deceased, and entreated his hearers to take the solemn lesson to hear!, as they too might soon be called from earth, From Alexanders Messenger 1846 and perhaps without that preparation Rumsey the First Inventor of for the great change which he trusted their departed sister had experienced. On the following week, 'calls of con-James Rumsey, who is believed to dolence were received from friends of be the first person that succeeded in the family, among others, Dr. Kthe invention of a steamboat, was a who wished to learn the particulars renative of the State of Maryland. When lating to the death of one whom he had quite young, he changed his residence known so well. 'Really,' said one of to Shepherdstown, Jefferson county, the sisters, in reply to the question, 'we were so much affected on learning the Early in life, he was in the mercan- sad news, that we did not conclude the tile business in Morgan county. In detter, nor have we felt like looking at the summer of 1783, he directed his it since. But I'll get it, that you may attention to the building of steambouts; read it to us.' With a very grave coun-in 1784 he succeeded in an imperfect tenance, (as befitted the occasion,) the experiment, which he kept entirely worthy divine read on till he came to private, in order to test the principle the following: 'It is my sad duty to of his invention. In the session of convey to you the intelligence of the billty have absented themselves from the Assembly of Virginia, in 1784, he death of our poor Marc. She died obtained the passage of an act guaran- last night of the disease from which tying to him the exclusive use of his she has been suffering so long a time, invention in navigating the waters of the botts!' You can imagine the sudthat State for the space of ten years. a deu change that spread over the length-In January 1785, he obtained a patent ened physiognomy of the reader! It is from the General Assembly of Maryland needless to say, the sable suits of the for navigating their waters. The en- sisters were laid aside for another octire year of 1785, he was employed on casion. Poor Mary' did not shuffle off the construction of his boat; and in the 'mortal coil' until several years an experiment in 1786, he was quite after." ing his boat by steam alone against the "An Irish servant observing her mis-tide, on the Potomac, at the rate of five tress feeding a pet female canary, askmiles an hour. One of the passengers ed 'how long it took the craters to on hoard his boat, on that trip, was hatch? 'Three weeks,' was the re-Mrs. Mary Ann Baker, mother-in-law ply. 'Och, sure, that is the same as of the late Gov. Gilmer, now alive. any other fowl, except a pig! A veri-It is also said that Gen. Washington table fact."

Mr. Rumsey built at Shepherdstown "A little girl, by name Abby B --a small log but, which is still standing; went recently to pass the night with a build this house he was supplied Kate C Now Abby was taught, with funds by his brother-in-law, Mr. what Kate was not, namely, to say her C. Morrow, which preved the latter's pravers on going to bed at night: so afruin. His boat was built on the bank ter they had setired. Abby repeated the of the Potomac, near the village. She Lord's prayes, until she came to 'Give was styled by the inhabitants "the Ay- us this day our daily bread," when Kate ing boat." and Mr. Rumsey, himself, interrupted her with: 'O Abby, why

THE HERALD.

Bardstown: : : March 31, 1853.

All Communications addressed to the Editor must be pre-paid.

Single copies of the HERALD for sale at the Office. Price, 5 cents

Each subsequent insertion,0 ordered out, and charged accordingly.

have the privilege of changing and renewing not the decided friends of common schools that those very aims and principles. Now

We hope that the above will be plain enough to be understood by all-and that all who adver tise Foreman of the Office has no time to spend in bargaining. This is without respect to persons: we are willing to let Printers live.

The Herat. D has an extensive circulation. ting with the public generally.

CASH.

HERALD our expenses have been considerably CASH for Paper, Ink, Labor, Office-rent &c., &c. advertise yearly we expect payments quarterly.

rule is without exception.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

where the tendencies of the two sections inillions, is at this present writing the vanmeet and mingle in the mass of broad and guard of society, and the most glorious emgenial intellect, of which the great com- bodiment of whatever is most enlightenend promiser, Henry Clay, was the most illus. and most vigorous, and most promising, in trious example, when he laid one hand upon the present stage of human civilization. the South, the other upon the North, and We have received another article from the bright yet mild effulgence of his lat. the subject.

country is concerned, are peculiarly a New England institution. It is one of the bequests of the stern old Pilgrim Fathers, As we should have no respect, I said whose sons, wherever they have gone in in my last communication, for the no- class of men of whom I have spoken. any considerable number, have cherished tions of men who would become angry, I am not accustomed to take stumps for the system as a most precious heir-loom, at human institutions in general, and ghosts, and I do not seek the emotions consecrated by the blood of Concord, Lex. at our Common School System in parington and Bunker Hill, because essential ticular, and desire their destruction beto the maintenance of those republican cause of their being simply imperfect, the Herald; and I delight in the wise liberties for which that blood was poured so we should utterly deprecate and reflections it suggests him. With him out so freely. We refer to its origin among condemn the views of any one who in the Puritans as a necessary part of its his case that system were found to be estory, because it was to them that it owed sentially deficient and wrong, and im-ship of His providence." And I bethe excresence which, until recently, has portant ameliorating changes were prac. lieve in those points "so strongly" that adhered to it wherever it has been adopted. ticable, would still be in favor of it and I am not afraid the radicals and infi This was the blending of religious with obstinately oppose all attempts to esmental culture, - a vestige of the union of tablish something better. If the sys to their clique," although I have never Church and State, and as such, at war with tem be so imbued with absolutism as seen, in the accounts of their ban-· fundamental principle of American con. not to harmonize with the rights of pa quets, any toast from him personally stitutions. We once wrote a book to in. rents and with the just claims of our or his own real signature appended to culcute upon our countrymen especially a different religious denominations, it is any of their writings, I am very much greater respect for the Pest than we then unworthy of being supported by us: ful companion both of their studies enpposed them to entertain. From more if it be wanting in the proper means to and of their festival rejoicings, and extended observation and more mature re. do the good which a sound, progressive that he does in fact belong to and guides flection, we have serious doubts whether school system ought to realize -to pro. the clique. Nevertheless I believe myany such le-son was needed. The world mote virtue, morality, and all that conis a slow coach after all, and the ideas of stitutes a good education, and contain God and His religion. But if unprinthe Past, however worthless, or inapplien. elements productive of evil, it should cipled men have not in their power to bie to the present, seem to have more than be held by us as a useless, nay an ob. obliterate entirely, truth and virtue the nine lives of a cat. It is not more than noxious encumbrance. a year, we believe, since the very able and enlightened Superintendent of Public Instruction in Kentucky, publicly declared that he would rather see the Common School System perish than that the Bible should not be taught in Common Schools. We did not hear him, but we have it from good authority. Theidea is that religion must be taught in the same place as reading, writing and ciphering. Now if this idea be well founded, the compulsory study of may not strike people as unjust, so long as judging of the system. all or nearly all of them are Protestants. them; my rule of faith includes something "Tribune," and of the "Times," of New is the holding of truth and the loving plosion cannot be prevented; and, when it papers seized, but whether any other more than the Bible, namely the traditions Fork. This fact tells against the sys- of good-truth and good in religion, in does take place-which, sooner or later, it parties were implicated has not yet of the Church, therefore if you insist upon tem; it goes to support the view that philosophy, in politics, in arts, in all will—it is to be hoped that we shall find transpired. The man was conducted faith is the Bible alone or includes some | we should most dearly cherish, support of teachers of falsehood. Abundant made his appearance in Downing. Street purpose ever since the year 1850. "My Transient Advertisers will be required to pay direct religious instruction from the schools, sumptively judge from the principles Those who advertise for six mouths or one year control. It is the general opinion among direct and proximate bearing upon such a division of the fund among the va- this is obviously the case with the have no disposition to do work cheaper for a close- mature reflection that we have been able by education that the individual and fisted enstomer than for our liberal patrons, who to give the subject, we are clearly in favor the national character are formed, the and business men'will find it adviantageous to in its absolute integrity, as a purely civil individual and of the nation depends opening of the mind to those sources of Since we have enlarged the BARDSTOWN knowledge and discipline which prepare a construct the whole social edifice upon increased; we are therefore compelled to adopt the man to exercise the rights and perform the CASH SYSTEM. Our object in doing this, is to functions of a citizen in a Democratic Reenable us to meet promptly the demands on us for public. We cannot fully explain our Could we con LECT AS WE GO, it would be better for views of this matter without some remarks as as well as for our customers. From those who upon the philosophy of civil government, which would too much lengthen this article, money must be paid when the work is done—this to another. We do not assume the radical position that a democracy is the only form we do say that it is the best, if it can be The most important subject in our opin- maintained. We say further that it canion which is now agitating the public mind not be maintained unless the great bulk of of this country is the question of State the voters, who wield its powers through Education. The discussion has been going their representatives, or rather the great on for some time and with great earnestness mass of those, who in any way exert an inin the powerful States of the North where fluence upon the government directly or n crowded and rapidly increasing popula. indirectly, have intelligence enough to tion makes a provision for general enlight. know what they are about; and that the enment a necessity of the most imperative common school system opens the mind to character, and of the most tremendous the sources of informations, hough it does not magnitude. In the slave States where po- of course complete the process of education, lit cal power is restricted to a class, which which goes on as long as a man lives, and bears a much smaller proportion than in retains his mental faculties. And if the the North, to the actual population, and system of education, which we have shad which has for the most part far more leisure owed out, is to be treated as peculiarly and greater average means and inducements American, we shall not flatter the national to educate their children, the adjustment vanity by claiming that our country has of this matter has been of less pressing interest and necessity. The discussion how. exhausted the scheme of Providence, as it ever is commencing in Kentucky, which is likely the Romans or the Greeks may in every respect a sort of a common me. have thought the same of themselves two dium between the North and South, for the thousand years ago, but we do claim that transmission of rectprocal impulses; a neu- America, as she now stands, confronting whose social and political schemes are powers are disaffected towards England aral ground, as it once was between the Europe on one side and Asia on the other subversive of order, virtue, and religi-Northern and Southern tribes of Indians, with her teeming and busy and thoughtful two distinct features of the subject -- have a certain dread of this their pow- by the three Powers most interested to ac nape of the neck. The glitter of the ion be well founded or not, after the most proximate bearing upon them; for it is led liberals and of the radicals is to rethe basis of their own wild, crude and as our school system is a favorite meadisorderly fancies. Any system of sure with them, no doubt because they education must necessarily have a pow- find it suited to their own principles erful bearing upon that towards which and ends, it is reasonable to apprehend the dangerous class of men, of which we speak of here, are tending, either for or against, either to facilitate it or to education will next be examined. prevent it. Your children will either warmly shake hands with the enemies of government that can rightfully exist, but of Religion and Christian virtue, or fly from their company and hold their doctrines in horfor according as they will have been educated. Secondly, the proof adduced against the validity of American:] my reasoning has no foundation. There is no parity between railroads, protecand other matters of this kind, without implicating their own distinct princidirect and proximate bearing upon their aims and principles, the former In the fact then that our system of on, we have a reasonable presumptive extending it, until it promises to beproof that that system is unfavorable to religion, virtue, morality and order. The avowal has been made more than once, that another system now proposed be "the true American system," but drew the lightnings from both, to warm his Candidus, and will wait until he has more that the present one should be mainown great soul, and kindle around him fully developed his views before resuming tained, as the last means of sooner or > denominations reflect upon this. It has been said that I overrate the dangers to be apprehended from the of fear in preference to those of hope. My own predilection is for the confiding mood of the gentleman who edits I rejoice in the belief of "God," of the indestructive vitality of His re ligion and of the overruling guardiandels may ever obtain an entire triumph. As to "his satanic majesty belonging inclined to believe that he is the faiththey ever succeed in triumphing over from the earth, they can, however, cer to ascertain the truth in regard to these in mind that they can do this and to As my first communication had refer- er. This knowledge and fear can but complish this result as quietly as possible. knife attracted the eyes of the Emperor. ence to the latter, I take it up the first.

For the Bardstown Herald. Common Schools, so far as our own The Means of Judging Considered.

>
> The nature, the constituent elements.
>
> Stimulate the wise to watchfulness, and attempted assassination of the Emperor of blow. Count O Donnell at once felled

The nature, the constituent elements tance. Truth and good are the proper Austria, have led the foreign governments the assassin to the earth, while a citizen by, our. W.M. Susie T. May. of system, and its actual fruits and re- objects of man's soul—their possession o believe that these wicked, mad attempts who, with his wife, happened to be sults on experience must furnish us pos- is his moral life. The destruction or have been concocted in London, which is passing, ran up and pinioned the arms, itive. satisfactory arguments. Pre. the partial ruin of this life by the loss deemed the hot-bed of revolution. An en- holding him until assistance arrived. sumptive ones are also perhaps derived truth and turning to evil, is a lament. ergetic note on the subject of the refugees The Emperor was not much hurt, and which accompanied the above notices able disorder, even if realized in one in London and Jersey, remonstrating with was able to proceed to the palace of the and heartily wish the donors a future as from the character, principles and ends only individual. The doctrines and the English government, is said to have Archduke Albert, when his wound was of some of those who are in favor of it. the influence of those who can effect it been prepared by M. Drouvn de 'Lhuys, dressed. Although no danger was apthe Protestant rule of faith and practice, Let us begin with this minor means of then are to be dreaded. How many in. to be jointly forwarded by Austria, France prehended, he was ordered to retire to dividuals of the rising generation are and Russia, to England. That this will his bed. The name of the criminal is I said in my first communication: exposed to lose their moral life and to have the effect of causing England to exfall victims to the deadly disease of er.

The said in my first communication: fall victims to the deadly disease of er.

The said in my first communication: fall victims to the deadly disease of er.

The said in my first communication: fall victims to the deadly disease of er.

The said in my first communication: fall victims to the deadly disease of er.

The said in my first communication: fall victims to the deadly disease of er.

The said in my first communication: fall victims to the deadly disease of er.

The said in my first communication: fall victims to the deadly disease of er. But here comes an ancient Church and The school system, as it is now amongst ror and vice, by the influence of irre- be supposed. That any other result will was led away he continually exclaimed, says, my people pay taxes for the support us, is a favorite measure with the most ligious men, bad philosophers and poof public achools; you admit that religion unprincipled and dangerous class of men litical utopists, if these be not pointed be expected. That the breach between I am alone." The truth of this is questing will be less and the litical utopists, if these be not pointed be expected. The truth of this is questing will be less and the litical utopists. whole rule of faith ought to be taught in of the country and the clique of the tive individual; its own moral life too ing on a smouldering volcano. The ex-thing more. We state the argument as it so zealously and so fondly the school sys.

strikes us, and we must confess that it seems tem, it must be because they find it to use a cliecher. We do not see how its conducive to their nefarious ends.—

thing more. We state the argument as it so zealously and so fondly the school sys. proof of it is found in many a page of history, sad enough to draw tears from the eyes of the true lover of the human the eyes of the true lover of the human edge of foreign affairs, added to great dito us a clincher. We do not see how its conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to their nefarious ends.— the eyes of the true tover of the numan leage of foreign analis, added to great the conducive to the conducive force can be evaded. It seems to have 'The validity of this reasoning' has tunate for a nation to be aware of the moderation, and considerable personal qualstruck a great many people in the same been denied; and it has been con tended dangers which are to be apprehended incations, which he can bring to the discations, which he can bring to the discations. way, for now in the public schools of New that as it would be wrong to infer that from bad philosophers and unprincipled charge of his duties, will give him, no York, and we believe, of most if not all railroads, protection to home industry men; and it is but wise to remind her doubt, facilities for the transaction of the throughout Austria, and the visits of sym-ADVERTISING.

York, and we believe, of most if not all those dangers, to warn her against the States where they exist,—we know it is the case in Kentucky—the pupils are on the fact of infidels and radicals of those dangers, to warn her against business of his temporal office which few men have been very not our many be sure, will not thank the case in Kentucky—the pupils are on the case in Kentucky—the pupils are of the case in Kentucky—the pupils are on the case in Kentucky—the case of the case of But now that the friends of the school sys. we logically draw this inference in re- on government, the right of revolution, vantage of the experience of Lord Palmer. fortress for life. The fellow shouted many Half column, one insertion, one insertion of delicacy or of difficulty, bis insertion of delicacy or of delic in advance. When an Advertisement is handed in claim their proportionate share of the Eduhe number of times it is to be must be stated, it not stated it will remain in the paper until cational Fund for the support of schools are opposed to or in favor of them, Pharisees," contain an important ethi. Lord John Russell's tenure of office, seven the city are closed. No bell is allowed to under their own exclusive supervision and such for instance as have necessarily a cal rule no less than a purely religious weeks in duration, has not passed without ring. No singing is permitted even in the rious denominations as our Catholic friends school system respecting the general others will certainly be so. I hold as authority, entitles him to great praise. will act in accordance with our requirements, in ask for, would be equivalent to an abandon aims and the principles of radicals and unphilosophical and mischievous the disstead of trying for hours to lower our prices. The ment of the system. Whether this opin- infidels: it has necessarily a direct and position which seems to be prevalent amongst us, to give always a favorable hearing and a trial to every new theory, to every new system how obviously hostile soever it be to truth and moralof maintaining the common school system shaping of the mind and heart of the ity. It cannot fail to work against the convinced of it when it will be too make use of its communication, restricted to the purposes for upon the system according to which late. It betrays in fact either a ruinwhich it has ever been primarily intended, education is imparted; and precisely our rashness or a lamentable absence of -the culture of the mental faculties,-the the great and only object of the so cal- fixed positive ethical principles. It is had given no secret assurance to the two but right and wise therefore, to consider the radicals and the so called liberals as a dangerous class of men; and.

> evil from it on this ground. The nature, the constituents elements, and the actual fruits of our State

CANDIDUS. Foreign Correspondence.

[Extracts from the Foreign Correspondence of the Philadelphia North

London, Friday, Feb. 25, 1853. The prace of Europe was never in tion to home industry or free trade a more threatened condition than at and a system of education in the respect this moment. The "amicable felawhich is here at issue. Infidels and tions' which are so frequently adverradicals can vote for or against railroads ted to by members of the government, certainly cannot justly apply now to our position with other European governments. We are openly distrusted ples and aims, but not so with a school by Austria. We have always-at least system. The latter has necessarily for a century-stood in an antagonistic position with respect to Russia; and, notwithstanding the professions of the Emperor of the French, the increase in evidently have not. The reasoning our naval armament and army, the ena pari, from parity, here does not hold. rolment of the militia, and the fortifi-All this might easily be extended and cation of the whole coast, show pretty rendered still more forcible; but it plainly what faith is placed in these dependent of inclination, to favor the with a class of men whose philosophy, said that the whole of the Continental Daily the breach grows wider, and the come very serious.

ninent danger. The dismemberment of the Empire is a theory which has long been cherished by Austria and in different quarters seemed indeed to Russia; while Prussia, who would expect to come in for a slice, would not be averse to such an event. Every op portunity likely to tend to such a result is eagerly seized by Austria, and every later doing away with the religious pretext employed to insult and annoy sects which divide the country. Let Turkey which chance or contrivance the members of the different religious can give it. The Montenegro question was eagerly taken as an opportunity for concentrating a large body of troops on the Dalmatian frontier, and the despatch of a special envoy to Constaniinople with demands couched in a tone of insolence, and an autograph letter from the Emperor Francis Joseph, aictated in imperious terms to the Sultan. These demands were the surrender of the ports of the Sattarina and Kleck, on the Dalmatian coast, through which the Montenegrins receive their supplies of arms There were many speakers, each, as might and amunition-a claim by Austria to be the protector of Christianity in the East, and a recognition by the Porte of the independence of the Montenegrins. Five days were allowed by Count Leiningen for the limatum of Turkey. An additional three days has been asked by the Minister, Faun Effendi. The Ministers of England and France have had frequent interviews with he Ottoman Minister, and have supported in to his determination not to comply with the demands made by Austria. It is, however, rumored that the intervention of France will be asked by Turkey and accepted by France. Whatever the result of this negotiation, England will stand by Turkey. One fact, alone, will compel her. The total amount of wheat imported into England, last year, was about 6,750,-000 quarters. Of this large quantity, no less than 3,350,000 quarters were sup- occurred a few days since at Vienna .plied by the East, or at least, came by The Emperor was walking upon the way of Galatz, from Hungary and Tur- bastion, attended by Count O'Donnell; key. The absorption of this large empire he stopped to observe some soldiers per-Nothing can be more important than be dreaded for this. It is well to bear quietly by England or France. Yet there leaning over, a man rushed up and stable no question that an effort is being made teaching the Bible, you ought to allow me good results cannot be expected from to teach also the traditions of the Church. It; for if the radicals and infidels, or in The State cannot say whether the rule of the cannot say whe

o Lord John Russell, whether a secret as surance had been given to those Irish members who had taken office under the present administration, that the government would legislate, in respect to the established Church in Ireland, on the principles of gave a distinct reply that the Government gentlemen (Messis, Sadler and Keogh) who had accepted office without any pledge. rom Lord Palmerston, upon a question

Lord Palmerston stated that all his proceedings against these agents of the Peace were much too good to be entrusted with further notice, of 30,000 florins ($15,000) ol world. (Great laughter.) If he might Milanese, and it becomes a serious quesbe allowed to give these parific gentiemen a piece of advice, he would entreat his by the intolerable harshness of their legishonorable friend, the Member of Ashton, lation, will not entirely alienate any School, and every Sabbath, until the duce his preaching colleagues in the Soci-State education is a favorite measure views of Austria; and thus, it may be ety, to be a little less pugnacious than they ad been of late. (Much laughter and

The Quæestio Vexata , the Marnooth the Eternal Spooner," as the Morning The position of Turkey is one of im-Chronicle dubs him, who moved for a committee to consider the ac's on the subect, with a view to repeal the money grants Mr. Spooner spoke for two hours, making nost violent attack on Catholicism; and tion in Ireiand. He argued that Maynooth and failed in accomplishing the objects that Catholic jurors, from the nature of appointed secretary. their teaching by their priests, could not be believed on outh. He concluded his weech by a fervent demunciation of Popery. and called upon the government to stand y its Protestant principles. An Amendment was moved by Mr. cholefield, of Birmingham, to the effect that the Committee should consider all acis whereby the revenue of the State was charged in aid of any ecclesiastical or reizious purposes with a view to their repeal. be expected, speaking with the bitter acrinony religious discussion always produces The debate was protracted until past mid night, and then adjourned until the following night, when it was resured by Mr. Fagan, an Irish Member, who, in company with several other Lish members, among them Mr. Lucas, delivered themselves with

Lord Stanly, the son of the Earl of Derby, in an able speech declared himself against the motion, and on a division, the imbers were: for the motion, 162; against

1, 192; majority against Mr. Spooner's motion, 30. An attempt to assassinate the Emperor of Austria, to which I have alludis no question that an effort is being made ced him with a kitchen knife, in the

The event has created a great sensation

ry, &c. If they once had in hand the fairs, to a.d with their counseis, in any likely to ensue from his atrocious act .them; but it is as well to keep a sharp isfactory. At this critical and trying mo- and impositions on the unhappy city .look-out. The words of the wisest of ment, such a man in Foreign Office is an All communication between Ita y and lesson; and happy those who will keep a display of his qualifications for business; churches. No whistling or raising of the splendid assortment of Perfuneries it in mind and reduce it to practice! and his conduct during this short term, for voice is permitted in the streets, under the ever offered to the Ladies of Bardstown they will escape being ensuared, en- its energy and the maintainance of the penalty of being shot. Three persons are and vicinity. The Extracts for Handtrapped, and sadly mislead, where the dignity of England, it is said upon good not allowed to talk together in the street. kerchiefs, &c., he has for sale are the under the same penalty. Nor dare any one approach within twenty paces of the and under any circumstances they may deem it necessary to use their arms. Sev eral persons have been hanged, and more shot. One poor fellow, who had gone out among a number of persons running away, He thought it advisable to run, too. He was seized and hanged, although it was in able terms. contestibly proved that he had nothing to He also informed Mr. Moore that it was do with the affair. Milan is like a city of not intended to introduce any such measure as that he named, other than a bill on Lumbardy are ordered to quit instanter. Minis er's money.' On the same night, and 2500 have arrived at the canton of Tithe Peace Society received a severe filip cino, in Swi zerland, expelled for no other the wood-work by Mr. Jas. McDaniel. from Mr. Hindley, respecting the inten. pearance in the canton. Hard working, that line of business. ions of Government, concerning some men industrious people, who are not revolutioninployed by this society, who had been lists, but peaceful traders, are thus made to blacarding Buckinghamshire, during the suffer for the acts of the foes to order. It Blacksmith Shop at the old stand of J. placarding Buckinghamshire, during the picture is presumed that there are upwards of 9000 C. And, and has employed Mr. Thomas of a man being flogged, purporting to be a Ticinese in Lombardy who have had three epresentation of facts de cribed in "the days allowed them to pack up and quit O'Neal, the celebrated horse shoer Autobiography of a Working Man,"_ Lombardy. The canton of Ticino can, and plow-maker, to superintend it.-These men had been arrested and thrown however, return the compliment if it dare. This is sufficient guaranty that work into prison, and he, (Mr. Hindley.) was there being upwards of five thousand Loin- will be well done at that shop. sirous of knowing what it was intended bards in the canton. The suppression of the liberal government in the canton of Ticino, the removal of all revolutionary or anti Austrian elements has been for a long Society, would be abandoned, as their ob- lime an idee fixe of the Military comman ject had utterly failed. His Lordsh p dants of Lombardy, and but for the inter-tead an indignant letter from the author of ference of England and France these prothe book quo'ed, who complained of the jects would have been carried out long ase made of his work, which was exactly since. France has, however, declared very contrary to its real purport; and after h s plainly that in the event of an Austrian Lordship had spoken immediately to the question, he said, in direct allusion to the occupy Savoy. Marshal Radetsky has Peace Society, he tooked upon the persons imposed upon Milan a compulsory tribute composing it as a set of well intentioned of 40,000 florius ($20,000) and a further (Cheers and laughter.) They tribute, every following Wednesday, mattl imposed upon Milan a compulsory tribute olitical functions in this wicked and sin- This is a pleasant state of things for the tion whether by this conduct the Austrians, ects which Mazzini and his party ar laboring to achieve.

CF Below are the proceedings of the Whigs of Bullit. The time of events of the past ten days are rapidly grant, made its annual appearance on Tues holding the convention is changed to that all alike are subject to the hand of day night, under the superintendence of the first Monday of May, which will mentality. As the sturdy, venerable give all the counties time to choose oak of the forest is smitten to the he 21st March, 1853, for the purpose oriending that the education at May nooth of appointing delegates to a convent the young made the victims of the diustified its pupils in the violent and almos tion to be held in Bardstown on the stroying messenger. But she lives rebellious conduct pursued at the late elec- 4th of April next, to nominate a candidate for Congress in the 5th Congres from a world, along the path of which, sional district, James Combs, F.q., was are many dangers and gloomy hours .for which it was intended; and further said, called to he chair, and Robt, M. Smith Let her affectionate mother and kind

> The object of the meeting being exlowing resolutions were offered and what is their loss is her ain. Resolved, That James Combs, R. M.

Smith, C. C. Kalfus, J. Hoglan, James

Croaw, J. D. S. Peacock, Craven Garritt, Richard Simmons, Wilhite Carpenler, Adam Chappize, Geo. W. Bowman, ing. Apply immediately. D. L. Brooks, James Arnold, George Shanklin, S. N. Brooks, Sam. Brooks. George D. Chappel, Wm. L. Barclay, F. M. Thomas, D. B. Whitman, Mat. COACH MANUFACTORY. thew Wilson, James M. Shanklin, Peyton Burditt, Linton Snapp, James Al drige, Wm R. Thompson, Wm. Waters, that "fervid eloquence" peculiar to Irish A. J. Robards, and Wm, J. Brown, be appointed delegates to represent the whigs of Bullitt county in the Con- vicinity, and of the public generally, to gressional Convention for the 5.h dis- to our stock of trict, to be held in Bardstown, on the Coaches, Rockaways and Bugfirst Monday in April next.

Resolved, That the delegates from this county be untrammeled, and left to Of every style, which we will sell at exercise their own discretion in select. unusually low prices for cash, or on ing the candidate who will secure the short time, to punctual customers. most unanimous support of the whigs

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedngs of this meeting be forwarded to the Louisville Journal, Louisville Coutier, Bardstown Herald, and Elizabethtown Register for publication. JAMES COMBS, Ch'n.

ROBERT M. SMITH, Sec'y.

MARRIED

On the 28th inst., by Rev. J. V. Cosby, Mr. WM. SUTHERLAND to Miss will warrant all work done at our es-

We return our thanks for the liberal allowance of wedding cake bright and beautiful as the blooming May of a Souther-n-land.

On the 17th, by Rev. S. A Baau-By the same, on the 24th, Mr. Sam'l.

WILLIS, of Shelbyville, to Miss

O'SSTERS—Just received and for sale a supply of excellent Core Orsters.

de2 COLLINGS & SUPPLERLAND.

DIED

On Monday night last, at the residence of Mr. Thomas Merrimee, Miss ELIZABETH WHITE.

10,000 LBS, OF RAGS! The State cannot say whether the rule o other words, the enemies of all that same agency—the corrupting doctrines were delivered to him on Monday, and he He declared that he had cherished this Wanted at this Office. Wanted at this Office which

LOCAL ITEMS.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Messrs. T. & D. of our readers and the public generally. They deserve patronage and we hope they will receive it from those who may need anything in their line. Buy your Coaches, Rockaways and Buggies at home-"encourage home industry."

We understand our Merchants are receiving their spring and summer is no need of being so badly scared at ernment will, no doubt, be eminently sat- to increase the rigor of their restrictions Herald, can find out where the best bargains are to be had.

At the Drug Store of D. J. Wood can be found the most extensive and richest and most delicate odors we ever sentry without the risk of being fired at .- before inhaled. We advise our ladv-Indeed, an almost uncontrolled discretion friends to call at his store, and we are is given to the soldiers to fire at any one. sure they will purchase without much

> Mr. E. S. Watts has just opened a fine assortment of Cloths, Cassimers, Vestings, &c., which he offers to sell, cut and make up, on very reason-was made by Mr. Peter Lydanne and reason than that Mazzini had made his ap- which we consider a chef-d'deuvre in

Mr. J. W. Wilson has opened a

OBITUARY.

Died, on the 28th inst., Miss Susan-NAH GLESNER, aged 11 years.

She was a kind, affectionate and gentle child, gaining the love and esteem of all who knew her. But alas! she was early plucked from the tree of life. a long and happy home. She was just entering iato girl-hood when the summons came, -her mission fulfilled and her from our midst. But she lives in he being of a day, she has now an inheritance in that land where life is

The writer was her teacher in Sunday would be making it unnecessarily long. In the fact then that our system of lacendary of lacendar seat in the class. Finding her on that day, lasked one of her classmates where she was? She told me she was sick! The following day came the sad news - "she is dead!"

Oh! how sad, how solemn the thought ground by the raging storm, so falls the aged man before the mission of death. At a meeting of the whigs of Bullitt As the beautiful, levely rose, just opencounty, in Shepherdsville, on Monday ing its folds, is chilled by the early lews and frosts of the morning, so are friends, and dear relatives, and loving associates, then, not mourn over her as plained dy Wm. R. Thompson, the fol- lost, but let them rejoice, knowing that T. M. H.

Apprentice Wanted.

A boy about 14 years of age wanted ter, R. M. Deats, G. W. Magruder, at this Office, to learn the art of Print. Thos. S. Gore, John Hamilton, Peter ing. One who can come well recom-Troutman, Peter Shain, Robert M. Lee, mended will find a good home and N. B. Small, R. L. Moore, J. W. Wel- obtain a thorough knowledge of Print-

T. & D. GLESNER'S

ARCH STREET, BARDSTOWN, KY.

of the citizens of Bardstown and

We feel confident that no establishment in the west can furnish better work than we do at the same prices. We invite all persons who may want an elegant and substantial Coach. Rockaway or Buggy, to call at our establishment and examine our stock for themselves, and we believe they will make their purchases without going to Louisville or any other city, as we are letermined to sell low for cash. As we empoly the best workmen and use none but the best materials we tablishment. Repairing of all kinds will be prompt-y attended to on very reasonable terms for cash.

T. &. D. GLESNER. m31

ERRING-Just received and for sale a few boxes Herring. A first rate article

RLOUR-Constantly on hand and for sale

Notice.

DERSONS having Medical Books of mine, will please return them, as I have imm to use for them. Al., W. HYNES, NEA of well known quality at cost at mar 3-tf RAUH, BROTHERS.

Money Wanted.

T is requested of all those indebted to me to call and settle their accounts wit ruther notice. [3t] WM. RUSSELL

THE HEBALD

IS PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY JAMES L. W. ELLIS,

[To whom all communications on business must b addressed pre-paid.]

TERMS. In six months, : : : : : 2 50 his opponents by changing the question at issue. Per annum, in advance, : : $2 00

TO CLUBS Of 10 the HERALD will be $1 50 per cop The money must always accompany the names of Club subscribers.

103.Painting.

We have, since the expiration of the 2nd volum of the Herald, made several very neces ary and Verhaegen's birth-day; and but for his wise dispensation of His providence, handsome additions to our JOB OFFICE, which will enable us to get ap our workin a style thatcan stupidity, had probably made at least not fail to please.

BOOKS, PAMPHLETS, CARDS, BLANKS, BALL TICKETS BILLS. POSTERS, BILL-HEADS, &C., &C.,

will be printed on fine white or fancy paper, with please those whofavor as with their patronage. OF GIVE US A CALL.

THURSDAY, ::: MARCH 31.

Nelson Agricultural Society.

for the promotion of Agriculture and not yet learned that an alien cannot be Manufactures, is about to be establish- recognized as a citizen of the United ed in our county. We doubt not that States, vuless he renounce all allegionce the Farmers and Mechanics and other to every other government and bind gentlemen interested in this matter himself to support ours, and that con-(and who is not) will come forward sequently, to say a gentleman of foreign promptly in aid of this noble enterprise. birth is an American citizen, is to as-A paper setting forth the objects and sert all this? conditions of membership in the hands | Again the Rev. gentleman cordially of Mr. J. Wood Wilson, and may be sympathises in and endorses such as the found at the store of his son Mr. J. M. following: "Sir; how long has the Am-the paper is set in jobs, we are compell. iX. The assertion implied by our reed to use several old fonts we had laid mark and the toast itself then was sim. Are elequent with voices that proclaim aside: this will account for the bad ap-ply this: -Pius IX, by sending a block In harmonies too perfect and too high pearance of the Herald this week.

For the Bardstown Herall.

Mr. Epiron:-We have a few addiwe expect to conclude our part in this were the most despicable ruler on earth, Blending the grand, the beautiful the gay, tional remarks to make, and with them controversy. We remember reading or hearing of a Dutch almanac maker, who lington, he renders honor to him; if rise Far off, in moonlight evenings, on the shore at the end of his sapient little volume. gave warning to the public that the be said that man can and must honor eclipses, moons, occultations, etc., were to be credited to him; but the storms, can and did honor Washington, which carthquakes and thunderbolts, were his wife's! The honors acquired in this But as they disagree with themselves large stock of that commodity.) 1 umpire to settle the dispute? We susformed his dirty work, and being no United States. Our government simto mew and caterwant for the private or as Protestant or Catholic. recreation of his neighborhood.

sponsible nondescript, who is neither alone answerable for those productions, and "principles" the Rev. g-ntleman so Auburn is a strongly Whig city, yet the high respect we have for your Rev. sympathises with and fully endorses. Benj. F. Hall, the late popular Whig correspondent prevents us from public. Does the Rev. gentleman not perceive Thos. Y. How, jr., Dem., on a like asly imputing to him the whole ignominy that if he alone is responsible for the sumption that Mr Hall favored the town, is for sale. The house is 2 stories high of the insult and misrepresentation two articles, he is responsible for their concession of separate Public Schools which they contain; nay, we sincerely "local references?" Yet he tries to for Cotholics. rejoice that, though he was weak enough shift the burden from his shoulders; but times. We rejoice that the Common to sanction, he was not silly enough to even his bragadocio about making "fur- School cause is so strongly entrenched pen, so much driveling nonsense. He ther reflections," will not relieve him in the public confidence and affection. says: "Of course it is not optional with from the odium of this unprovoked and and we entreat its leading, influential me whether the discussion shall close malignant assault upon the Faculty and friends to strive evermore to maintain here or proceed farther." There is no students of St. Joseph's and "a Citi- and extend its popularity. It is by no "of course" about it. Was it not op- zen." The "local references" made by uphold our Schools; we must labor to tional with him whether or not he his protege-in which after all there is ender them heartily acceptable to all should publish this second article of more stupidity than malice-are the Be careful that neither Catholics nor "an American," prefaced by his own real questions at issue, and are all that others have any real and valid ground solemn rodomontade about "responsi- caused them to arrest attention. It of objection to the Common Schools ble names," and "further reflections" your Rev. correspondent wished to en- as sectarian and proselyting. It is far which he is to make? His indulgence to gage in a religious or philosophical easier to preserve their popularity than, "an American," the mystic puppet with more nobleness by throwing the gauntwhose absurd tricks he amuses himself, let at first, with that openness and began it; and if he wished the thing courtesy which it seems are to characterto proceed no farther, could be not ise the remarks he may think proper to to proceed no farther, could be not make in some future and different discasily have put a stop to the imperticussion. In seeking to bring on such SPRINGSTYLES ter the first article? Instead of doing disgrace him, he has placed himself this, the same "slavered tale" is repeat- either above or below honorable antaged; and, together with this, he favors onism. It will now be difficult for ed; and, together with this, he tavors him to treat any subject without renus with some of his own stiff-jointed dering it repulsive or contemptible. ponderous efforts to be dignified, and If he is determined however to examine that, too, not in the modern style of the "intrinsic merits" of any matter, pomp and magnifience, but like a me- let him broach it at once, casting aside diaeval baron, he is followed by his "local references," etc. It is not profool, who amuses him with maudlin bable he will excite any great commononsense about "kissing the Pope's big tion among "responsible names;" but at toe," and such silly gimcracks! "I least he will be tess exposed to disturb must be allowed to ask for responsible the peace and harmony of the commuin flagrante delicto, and is arraigned be-names," says the Rev. gentleman.

about new questions, "free from local the matter and believe the result of our investigations may be acceptable to the references." The conditions of the public. present contest are already determined; and even if he considers ours as not "responsible names," he can only choose

He tells us: "so deeply do I sympacan." we confess, has shown some moral which time the following resolutions courage, which is to be admired, in vir. were offered by the superintendant and tually confessing to the notorious false unanimously adopted by the school; hood about the illumination on Father tacit amends for his insulting questions in his first article about the oath of albers of the Faculty. Although our re-Black, Blue, or Red Ink, on short notice. We are ply was very distinct upon that point, determined to use all means within our power to we were not understood. If we were asked whether or not a certain gentleman had studied law, and we answered that he is a good lawyer, even the dullest intellect would infer that of course then he must have studied law. Does the writer not know the meaning of We are happy to learn that a society the title he himself assumes? Has he erican public received as complimentary The world is full of poetry-the air to the Father of his country a toast in As the type we generally use on honor of a ruler, etc?"—meaning Pius And sparkle in its brightness. Earth is veiled of marble to the Washington monu. For ought out beings of celestial mould, ment, paid a compliment to Washington; nay, we now add, he did an honor to Washington. For even if the Pope by publicly rendering homage to Wash. Which steak into the heart, like sounds that this were not true, how could it ever of the wide o can, recting after storms. God? Hence a fortiore Pius the Ninth is more even than to compliment him.

The following is another sentiment dispute by "an American" and his Rev. or principle which enlists Rev. J. V. patron, should have been distributed by Cosby's sympathy, and is endorsed by them in a somewhat similar manner .- him: "In my simplicity, (you have a about their laurels, who shall be the chought the 224 of February was kept lis not the union of returning sounds, as a national festival, not as a religious pect "an American" is merely the cats. one-when in Protestant land, etc." 1 paw with which the chesinuts are had been quite as well to say christian raked from the embers, who having per. land; christianity is the religion of the longer needed, will now be let loose and ply recognises the religion of the new allowed to scamper to some hiding place law, not as Protestant only, but wheth-

> "Wno shames the scribbler? Destroy his fib or sophistry in vain,

We must inform him that the 22d

Rev. gentleman is not the judge but the discussion of it would extend our the accused; he has been taken prisoner present article beyond proper limits. With your permission, Mr. Editor, fore the bar of public opinion for enfore the bar of public opinion for enstatement of the facts of this famous affair, not by way of answering the reindebted to them to call and settle with jan 6-3t

jy 15 COLLINGS & SUTHERLAND.

this, it will be then time enough for voke new discussion; but because we him to lay down dictatorial conditions have gone to the trouble of examining

> CHAS. C. FARRELLY. EDWARD H. FOURNIER. G. C. WHITE. BARDSTOWN, March 28th, 1853.

For the Bardstown Herald. Owing to the death of one of the thize with the sentiments arowed in members of the M. E. Sunday School, the articles of "an American, so fully Miss Susannah Glesner, the school do I endorse and adopt the principles was convened for the purpose of folthere held in issue, etc." "An Ameri- lowing her remains to the grave, at

Whereas, Almighty God has, in the seen fit to call from among us, to join the redeemed on high, our much esteemed and highly beloved young friend and scholar, Miss Susannah Glesner, legiance not being taken by the mem- thus giving us another evidence of our mortality; that we too, must soon bid adien to time, Therefore, submission to His chastising rod in this serious bereavement, we shed the tear of sympethy with the friends of the departed, but rejoice that our loss is ier eternal gain.

Resolved, That in the loss of our young friend, the school has lost a good and faithful member; one marked tor her promptitude, amiability, puri ty in disposition, kind and affectionate all with whom she moved.

Besolved. That we will go in so'emn procession as a Sunday School, to the place of interment, thus evincing out espect for the memory of the deceased. Resolved further, That these proceed. ings be published in the Herald.

T. J. MAYNARD, Sup't. of M. E. S. School, Bardstown, March 28th, 1853.

POETRY.

And mantled with its beauty, and the walls That close the universe with crystal in, And speak to man in one eternal byon, Unfading beauty and unyielding power,

The year leads round the seasons in a choir

Or tones, that wind around the vaulted roof, I some old, lonely minstrel, where the hand stillful, and moved with passionate love of att ays o'er the higher keys, and bears aloft he peal of bursting thunder, and then calls mellow touches from the softer tubes, ices of melting tenderness, that blead Vith pure and gentle masings, 'till the soul, ngling with the melody, is borne apt and dissolved in exstacy, to Heaven-

Tis not the clime and flow of words that moor all the pleasing artifice of thyme, And quantity, and accent that can give This all pervading spirit to the ear, blend with it the movings of the soul. 'is a mysterious feeling, which combines an with the world around him, in a chair e tastes the high communion of his thought ith all existence in earth and heaven. hat meet him in the charm of grace and power is not the noisy babbler, who displays, stupid phrase and ornate epithet And rounded period, poor and vapid thoughts, sale by first overload their littleness. Its words e few, but deed and solemn; and they break esh from the fount of feeling, and are full all that passion, which on Carmel fired e holy prophet, when his lips were coals, his language winged with terror, as when bolts cap from the brooding tempest, armed with Commissioned to affright us, and destroy.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION .- Our Common School system is very strong in Are now opening their Spring stock o the popular regard Wherever, in the it, it proved fatal to the suspected .-Thus Detroit is a 'Democratic' city, yet the regulars were utterly routed by an ant also of examining a complete assortment, ar independant movement, started only secretly committed to the project of separate Schools for Catholics, to draw Mayor, was badly besten just new by THE House and Lot now occupied by the Thos. Y. How, jr., Dem., on a like as-

-N. Y. Tribune.

MILLINERY!

1853. No. 100 Eourth Street, Louisville, Ky. MRS. J. A. BEATTIE

ESPECTFULLY informs the public that he is now opening a complete assortment

Choice Millinery, American Bonnets, Paris Ribbons, French Flowers, Dress Caps, Bridal Wreaths, Veils, Caemizettes, Scarfs, Collars, Collar Caemizettes, Scarfs, Collars, Undersleaves, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Mitts, &c., &c., selected in person, in the Eastern Cities, from the

MRS. J. A. BEATTIE, No. 100, Fourth St.

THEY HAVE COME! ANDRETH'S WARRANTED GARDEN

NOURSE & HACKLEY.

Lilly's Steam Feloe Mill. Waggon, Plow and Cutting Box Manufactory.

and Blacksmith Shop. CORNER MAIN AND BROADWAY STREETS (NEAR THE MARKET HOUSE.) Bardstown, Ky.

ME subscriber is now prepared to furnish farmers and others with every article ited in his line of business. He has the nic of the latest improvements in machinery for excellent Feloe Mill, Circular Saw, Boring and l'enoning apparatus, and a first-rate Lathe for who desire to afford their daughters an turning Iron, all driven by steam. Having a ed education, based on the principle. personal experience of near twenty-eight years according to the liberal scale of Protestantism. n the business and employing workmen who an be relied upon, he hopes to sustain his repu Resolved, That while we bow with tation as a Mechanic, and obtain a liberal share Cuntronage.

Wagons, Ox and Horse Carts, with iron wood axles.

Wheelbarrows, Turnpike do. Lilly's celebrated Cast Plows, nine sizes. ly's S ib Soil Plow, an extra article.

The Gray Plow, of every size. Rounder and steel Plow, warranted of e best quality and furnished to order low for Blacksmithing ; Horseshoeing ; Mill Iron

Particular attention paid to furning iron Wrists, Shafts, &c., for steam engines, and Saw Mills, furnished to order at lowest cash

Chain Pumps The best and cheapest umps now in use, always on hand. I am pre ared to put them in wells or cisterns if desired. Grindstones, (Sciota grit,) shafts and fric-

Foot Scrapers; a new article and very chean Lilly's Citting Baxes; the best extant. All the above made and for sale be in 20-1f JOHN H. LHAY.

Wanted.

TWO apprentices to learn the Blacksmith ing business. Appl immediately to jon 30-if JOHN II. LILLY.

$100 REWARD!

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living near Bardstown, on Taesday the 15th inst, a black man named SAMPSON aged 26 years, yellow com-plexion, 5 feet ten inches high; has a small sear on his right cheek, spare made and weighs about 160 pounds. He had on when he left a brown jeans coat grey jeans pants, coarse boots and a black wool hat I will give the above reward if taken out of the I will give the above reward if taken out of the state, $50 if taken in this State and out of Nelson and the adjoining counties; $20 if taking in any county adjoining Nelson, and $10 if taken in the county of Nelson, and lodged in jail so that I get him.

The above named boy formerly belonged to the heirs of James F. Nall of Nelson county.

HUNTER, MURPHY & TALBOTT,

by WM. MATTINGLY, Agent.

Notice.

LL those indebted to the firm of Raul & LL those indebted to the firm of Kauli & Bro will please call and pay, as the af irs of this concern must be wound up. Early callers will save both ex RAUH& BRO. Bardstown, Jan. 1, 1853.

CLOVER SEED. UST received and for sale by JASPER M. WILSON.

RAISINS. J. M. WILSON.

WANTED Ginseng, Mustard Seed, Blue Grass and oven of flowers, and dipped in sweetness, till Timothy Seed. J. M. WILSON.

BROWN, LOAF AND CRUSHED SUGAR, Of various qualities, in store and for

J. M. WILSON. WANTED All the Feathers I can buy, for which will give the highest price. J. M. WILSON.

BURT BROTHERS& CO. 50 Broadway,

NEW YORK, BOOTS & SHOES.

ND invication to an attractive as BURT BROTHERS & CO., 50 Broadway. New York, Jan 10, 1853.

Dr. D. Daugherty, SURGEON DENTIST, OFFICE: At his residence on the South side the Public Square, Bardstown, Ky.

House and Lot for Sale.

Porch, and a good Collar: Snoke House and Well under the same roof; the Well is one of he best in the town. The lot is about 52 fee cont and extends back to an alley.

All of the buildings are brick, and have been ailt but a few years. Any person wishing a le neighborhood, cannot be better suited. terms, &c. apply to JAS, L. CORRETHERS.

GLOTHING!!! Rauh, Rrothers

WOULD beg leave to inform their friends and the public that they have received ad are receiving weekly, new supplies to their already large stock of READY MADE CLOTHING, of to be surpassed by any as for Cut, Style Making, and low prices. Receiving good every week, they are enabled to furnish at an ime, articles suitable for the season, and l ving their whole attention to this one linbusiness, they hope to mereit farther the confidence and patronage so liberally bestow SHIRTS, undershirts, hats, and caps, trunks, umbrellas, carpet bags, allways on hand and march 3-tf RAUH, BROTHERS.

march 3-tf

RIBBON, Laces, Fringes, Silk dress pat-terns, at cost at march 3-tf RAUH, BROTHERS.

RAUH, BROTHERS.

WHOLESALE GROCERS,

Ladies are respectfully invited to examine COMMISSION AND FORWARDING MERCHANTS. WALL STREET LOUISVILLE, KY. Refer to Hite & Son; Queen, Haydon & Co. s effects upon trial. Particular attention paid to the sale of To > WANTED. INSENG, Bees wax, Bacon, Lard, Flax seed, for which we will pay the highes and by Druggists and dealers in Medi-[jan. 20 nes overy where.

SPRING DRY-GOOS:

THE subscribers having removed to No 1 488, Main Street, are now receiving their pring purchases of embracing a large and complete variety of STAPLE, DRESS & FANCY GOODS. Their Stock is new and beautiful; has been dected with great care, and will be sold at the very lowest prices. Country Merchants are espectfully invited to J. DANFORTH & SON. 488 Main-st., between 4th & 5th streets, v.two Weeks each ty two Weeks each.

CIRCULAR

The Course of Instruction is liberal and thorough; the Teachers in the several Departments are of the first character; the Discipline is as Home-like as it can be made; and the accommodations, in respect to the Rooms. Board, &c., are extensive and good.— We feel justified while we once more earnestly in vite the attention and solicit the patronage of il

CHARGES .- TERM OF FIVE MONTHS.

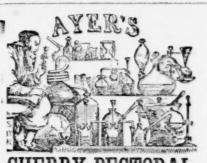

Extra Course.

Instruction on Harp, with use Instrument ... $20.00 Drawing, plain and colored rayous

Board in Institution, including Washing, Lights Fuelin Bed-Rooms, $2 per week hurge for use of Booka in the Acadamy Library to use of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus to the code $3.50 per Term. These at the order Substitute for it. By the aid of this preparanot to exceed $3 50 per Term These at the option tion, the pains and evils of Indigestion and asy of access by good turnpike roads from Louis Nashville, Harrodsburgh, &c. and having a prompt attention.

J. V. COSBY, Principal.

For the rapid Cure of BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

To cure a Cold with Headache and Soreness of the Body, take the Cherry Pecto ral on going to bed and wrap up warm, to sweat

For a Cold-and Cough, take it morning noon, and evening, according to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble In boxes and quarter boxes, fresh, just when they find it can be so readily cured. Perth Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, unbroken sleep, and conse suffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to housands who are thus afflicted, by this invalu-

nd themselves unwilling to forego its us

FAYETTLYULE, TENN., April, 16, 1851. S n :-- We have given your Cherry Pectors to surpass every other remedy we have fo

DRS. DIEMER & HAMPTON. nedy is invaluable, as by action on th goat and lungs, when taken in small quant s, it removes all hourseness in a few hours lity of the voice ten wholly cured by Corry Pectorni. But there are some cases so obstinate as to yield ntirely to no medicine. Cherry Pecteral with re them, if they can be cared ng Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent The uncomfortable oppression is soon Rev. Dr. Lansing of Brooklin, N. Y. states :-

o believe it can rarely fail to cure those dis-For Croup. Give an emetic of Antimony to be followed by large and frequent doses of the Cherry Pectoral, until it subdues the disase. If taken in season it will not fail to

DE. J. C AYER: - I write to inform you o the truly remarkable effects of your Cherr Pectoral in this place, and in my own family. One of my daughters was completely cured i taking it. Dr. Means, one of our best of remedy we have for pulmonary diseases, and that he has cured more cases of Croup with it than any other medicine he ever admin son, he has seen cures from your medicine, he could scarcely have believed without seeing. Yours respectfully, J. D. SINGLAIR, Deputy Postmaster. coughs, and pulmonary diseases. PARKER CLEVELAND, M. D.

Dr. Valentine Mott. the widely celebrate

Brunswick , Me ., Feb. 5, 1847 .

the Throat ind Lungs." Cures of severe diseases upon the Lungs have been effected by Cherry Pectoral in such ex-treme cases as warrant the belief that a rem edy has at length been found that can b sended on to cure the Coughs, Colds, and Con umption which carry from our midst thousand every year. It is indeed a medicine to which the afflicted can look with confidence for re tief, and they should not fail to avail then

With such assurance and from such men, no tronger proof can be adduced unless it be from Prepared And Sold By James C. Ayer, Practical and Analytical Chemest, Lowell, Mass.

CREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!

THE TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR, GASTRIC JUICE.

DREPARED from the RENNET, or the fourth STOMACH OF THE OX, after-

This is a wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Debility. Curing after Nature's own method by Nature's own Agent the Gastric Juice.

Ilalf a teaspoonful of Persix infused in ter, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the Tersin is the chief elem nf or Great Disesting Principle of the eastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Guilfing Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach Despensia are removed just as they would i by a healthy stomach. It is doing wonders for based, is in the highest degree Carious and Remarkable. Scientific Evidence.

Baron starks in his celebrated work on brane of the stomach of the Ox in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be again, it was nearly valueless, owing, softened changed and digested just in the no doubt, to their ignorance in prepar-Dr. Comme, in his valuable writings on the Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a limination of the due quantity of the Gastric The extraordinary medicine. Juice is prominent and all-prevailing cause of these two substances are, now, for Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding Gastrie Juice, obtained from the stomachs living animals, which proved completely suc- that what remains in the most extraor-Dr. GRAHAM, author of the famous works ble fact in physiology that the stomachs of animals macerated in water impact to the duid the property of dissolving various article of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial di natural digestive process. Call on the Agent, and get a Descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of Scientific Evidence, similar to the above, to gether with the report of Remorkable Cures. from all parts of the United States. As a Dyspepsia Carer, hem of their rest at night, will find by taking cline and Dyspeptic Consumption .cently refreshing rest. Great relief from the limits of this advertisement; but authoricated certificates have been given of more n Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cares were not only rapid and wondrful, but

It is a great NERVOUS ANTIDOTE, and articularly useful for tendency to Bilions dis order, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, o acts freated Ferer and Ague, and the fiects of Quinine, Mercury, and other di apon the Digestive Organs, after a long sick ice use of ardent spirits. It almost reconcile fealth with Intemperance. Old Stomach Complaints.

There is no form of Old Stomach Complaints which it does not seem to reach and remove at mee. No matter how bad they may be, i EVES INSTANT RELIEF! Single dose vemov e repeated for a short time to make these good spermanent. Purity of Blood, and Vign his statement. f Bedy follow at once. It is particularly ex Soreness of the pit of the Stomach, ter eating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness, Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emciation, Weakness, tendency to Leanity

Dr Houghton's Pensin is sold by nearly al he dealers in fine drugs and Popular Medi ines throughout the United States. It is prepared in Powaer and in Fluid form-and Private Circulars for the use of Physi us, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or h

Agents, describing the whole process of pro-aration, and giving the authorities up As it is NOT A SECRET REMEDY, no objection can be raised against its use by Physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price, One Dollar per Bottle. Observe this ! Every bottle of the

J. S. Houghton, M. D., sole proprietor,

AGENTS. DAVID J. WOOD, Bardstown. Wholesale and Retail Agent; DR. W.

JOHNSON HOUSE.

MOND & PATTEN, Louisville.

April 28, 1852.-1y.

NEW HAVEN, KY., FRANK JOHNSON, PROPRIETOR. Respectfully announces to citizens of Nelson, Hardin, Larue and the adjoining counties, and the large and co-mundious brick house formerly occupied by R. N. Long. The house has been will come. I should use Wistar's Balsam of thoroughly repaired, and his rooms fitted up with now and fashionable furniture, carpets, of Messes. Fall and McCracken, your &c. His table will at all substanstials and agents in Lancaster, Chio. efficacy of 'Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.' which I luxuries that the countryaffords. His stable is spacious, well supplied with provender, and atended by careful hostlers. His Bar is at all times filled with the very best of foreign and do-

> He feels assured that he can give satisfaction sep 4v FRANK JOHNSON. WILSON'S HOTEL. Hodgenville, Larue County, Ky.

xpense to reneer his guests comfortable forming the public, that he has again taken charge of his Hotel, and will give his personal attention to the management of the whole establishment. The House is large and omfortable, and to which is connected a good assured that he will be able to render satisfaction to all who may favor him with a call, and further, to insure comfort and quiet to his guests, the house will be conducted on the Temperance plan.

SAMUEL WILSON.

FRESH FIGS just received and for sale by the Samuel Samuel Wilson.

The subscriber takes this method of in-

LAND FOR SALE.

290 ACRES in Larne County, on the Rolling Fork, opposite, and in sight of New Haven-50 acres as good Grass La as any on the river-80 acres of good Oxa Land; an abundance of valuable Timber, and susceptible of being made a beautiful and pro-sitable farm. Price $3,000. Sylvester John-son, Esq., is authorized to sell.

206 Acres

n Hart County, on Green River, adjoining Munfordsville, and within two miles of the proposed Railroad from Louisville to Nashville, 120 acres cleared and in a high state of cultivation .- Buildings convenient and comfortaole. Price $2,000. J. W. Barrett, Esq., ie

In Hardin County, on Meeting Creek-150 acres cleare !-soil productive. - Improvements convenient and comfortable. Price $1,000.

In Grayson Churty, on Rough Creek. Sere-ral tenements. Portions of it very rich soin. Two of the best Mill Seats on the Greek.

Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON and will sell for Negroes, or on such credits as will suit the purchaser. Title inaisputable.

B. R. YOUNG.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

I he best remedy ever known to man! For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, > Weakness of the Breast or Side, First stages Consumption,

In short, this Balsam is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced by our

Wild Cherry has long been known to

The extraordinary medicinal powers in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. By a nice chemical process, everything deleterious or useless is rejected, so

Two lives saved by the use of only three bottles; of Wistar's Balsam of WILD CHERRY!

Mr. Engy, Ky., July 24, 1852. Messrs, Harcourt Howard & Co-

than Two Hundred Remarkable Cures, The physicians pronounced her case consumption. She had profuse night sweats, and had coughs; she was given up, for we despaired of her recovery, and her child partock of her complaint, She then commenced taking "Wistar's

In passing, we would advise this irre-"a boy crossed in love," nor an imbe- of February is in most parts of the cile old dotord, etc., to become a stu. United States not kept as any sort of deut of St. Jeseph's, if he is elegible, lestival; but at St. Joseph's and other or some other good school. But the Catholic Colleges, it and the 4th or moral of this story admits of a far more July are regularly celebrated as their pertinent application to the Rev. hero principal public festivities. If "an in this pretty little romance. In the American" after reading an account or estimation of many of his friends, even witnessing the celebration of Washing-late Municipal Elections, there was when the disgrace of the articles from ton's birth-day at St. Joseph's, in- even a suspicion of disaffection toward the white livered "American" under ferred that it was a religious festival. his special guardianship, is duly appor. we will not insult his understanding by tioned, there still remains enough to addressing arguments to him; for the degrade him far below the utmost reach fact indicates a confusion of thought just before the election, based on the of the profoundest contempt. Al. that renders the soundest logic useless assumption that the regulars were though we were from the beginning for him. fully authorised to consider him as Such are some of the "sentiments" their share of the School Money. And disputation, he would have exhibited once lost, to regain it. Beware of the nust be allowed to ask for responsible nity, which are worth more than all the light he will shed upon it.

In regard to the matter in hand, the With regard to the Madiai question, with regard to the Madiai question, faithfully filled.

1853.

DRY GOODS.

OF THE Bardstown Female Academy. THE next Session of this Institution will open as atinue through two consecutive Terms of Twen

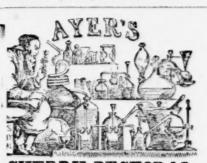

Regular Course.

Section 2nd $18,00

do ..$20,00 do ..$14.00 Prainting water colors and older and older and older street from the Di French, Latin, or Greek, each $10.00 gestive Stomach of the Ox thus forming an

Bardstown is remarkable for its healthfulness It Telegraph office, ready communication may be had between the pupils and patrons of the Academy omnunications addressed to the Principal, or to anymember of the Board of Trustees, will receive is based, is in the highest degree Carious and Trustees.—Charles' Nourse, J Wood Wilson T. P. Linthicum, Joseph Brown, Hon, C A Wick liffe, Wm Sutherland, Jacob Rizer, Thomas S Bardstown Ky ., Aug. 12, 1852.

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS,

From two eminent physicians in

To Singers and Public Speakers this

r portion of the lungs, may be cured by ta

'I have seen the Cherry Pectoral care such cases of Asthma and Brouchit's as leaves me d by the use of Cherry Pectoral. The Infinenza is speedily removed by this Numerous instances have been no emedy. Numerous instances have been no iced where whole families were protected from hors, without the Cherry Pectoral, were suffer Salem, Ohio, June 11, 1851.

One Clergyman of the Baptist Church says that during the run of Influenza here this sen

From the distinguished Professor of Chemis y and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College, I have found the Cherry Pectoral, as its ingredients show, a powerful remedy for colds, and

Professor of Surgery in the Medical College, New York, says: It gives me pleasure to certify the value and

Sold in Bardstown by Dr. H. Cox,

Another Scientific Wonder!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTO, J'S

authorised to sell. 330 Acres

1,300 Acres

l'imber abundant, and convenient. Price $ 4,000. I offer the above tracts of Land very cheap, Bronchitis, Influenza, Bleeding of the Lungs. Difficult Breathing, Liver Affections, Pain or &c. &c. &c. ever-varying climate.

possess important medicinal properties. This fact is familiar to every matron in sumption, supposed to be on the verge of the our land, and physicians often prescribe it in different forms for a variety of complaints. Tar, also, has been equally noted for its virtues, and some physicians whose name is familiar to the Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Di. whole country, have gone as far as to gestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastrie Juice. declare that even Consumption could may be readily prepared from the nuccous mem- be cured by that alone. In other hands, again, it was nearly valueless, owing, ame manner as they would be in the humar ing and administering it-a difficulty now entirely obvizted by patient exdinary and truly efficacious remedy for all kinds of pulmonary and liver diseases ever known to man. To convince all unbelievers that our theory is really true, we refer to a few cases of cures testion of them in no wise different from the performed by this wonderful medicine.

Dr. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN has produced Gents:- The " Dr. Wistar's Balsom of the most MARVELLOUS EFFECTS, in curing cases Wild Cherry" that I bought of you. of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous De- has been of such signal benefit in my family, that I wish to make its virtues it is impossible to give the details of cases in known for the benefit of the public. My wife took cold at the time of her confinement, which settled on her lungs.

> Balsam of Wild Cherry," and three botles effected an entire cure with ber and the child both. I have no doubt that they would have now been in their graves if they had no:

> have used Wister's Balsam of Wild SETH R. SEARCY. Seth R. Searcy, whose name is above. is a man of as much veracity as any in this country, and a man of good judgment, aud we place entire reliance ou

HARCOURT HOWARD & Co. CONSUMPTION CURABLE Robert Sanderson, Justice of the Peace in Rush Creek township, Fairfield county, Ohio, and brother of 'Maj.

General Sanderson,' as officer in the war of 1812, cured of Consumption by the use of Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Rush C. cek township, Fairfield Co., Dear Sir: - As I consider Ithat my life has been prolonged by my being cured of Consumption by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I will state the symptoms of my case, that others similarly afflicted may be induced to try this invaluable remedy. I experienced great difficulty in breathhilade phia, l'a. Copy-right and Trade Mark ing; had the hectic fever with violent flushes of heat and frequent cold chills, Medicines.

Denggists and Dealers in with severe pain in my side and breast, accompanied by a very bad cough; was very restless at nights, and had great night sweats, perspiring I should say. at least two gallons a night, wetting L. CRUTCHER, Frankfort; RAY, the bed completely through. I had not been able to work for years, but I was much amaciated, and almost hopeless, when I commenced using Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have used in all 13 bottles, and I am now free from

I am now fifty-five years old, and have not taken any of the Balsam since 1846, because my health is so good as not to require any medicine. But if 1 e has opened a Tavern at New Haven, in the have any return of my former symp-Wild Cherry. I procured the medicine all those complaints, for my health is ROBERT SANDERSON. The genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has a fac simile of the sigmestic liquors, and he will spare no pains or nature of Henry Wistar, M. D., Philadelphia, and Sanford and Park, on a finely executed iteel engraved wrapper. No other can be genuine.

(CF Price $1 per bottle-six bottles for $5. J. D. PARK, Cin., O. Solu by Northeast corner of Fourth and Walnut

Sts .- entrance on Walnut street-to whom all orders must be addressed. Also sold by D.J. Wood, Bardstown; J. F. Senour, Elizabethtown; J. W. Stable, sufficient to accommodate fifty or sixty hor soes, and from his long experience in business, he feels Haven; A. S. Burleigh, Shepherasville;

THE HERALD.

Bardstown: :: March 31, 1853.

All Communications addressed to the Editor must be pre-paid.

Single copies of the HERALD for sale at the Office. Price, 5 cents

Apprentice Wanted.

A boy about 14 years of age wanted to come here!" at this Office, to learn the art of Printing. One who can come well recommended will find a good home and obtain a thorough knowledge of Printing. Apply immediately.

NOTICE!

As the expenses of the HERALD OFFICE have been considerably increased since the second enlargement of THE BARDSTOWN HERALD, will not our subscribers, if they cannot pay all, pay half of their subscriptions?—
We now furnish them with a paper conweal and a pig. He also had a February 10, 1853.—$5° relief, when he was induced to try the owned some thirty or forty acres of and will sell for Negroes, or on such credits as will suit the purchaser. Title incisputable.

B. R. YOUNG.

February 10, 1853.—$5° taining almost twice as much reading as any Bardstown paper ever before contained, and without any increase in Under this becavement, his sorrow the price. [Although we now have a seemed almost immoderate, and his larger subscription list than any other neighbors were giving him their kindpolitical or literary paper ever publish est sympathy. 'Your trials are heavy For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, filent that it will be doubled before the very great. 'Yes,' returned the sorrowpresent volume expires.]

(From Graham's Megazine. The Heroism of Labor.

BY FREDERICK W. GRAYSON.

Tis not him who, bribed by glory, Battling in a nation's eyes, Tempted with a name in story --Doeth deeds of true emprise;

But 't is him, the high, heroic Soul, that in an humbler strife— (Labors fameless, low-born stoic—) Struggles for the means of life;

Struggles heavely-ne'er despairing, Conquering stern, opposing fate; Ever nobly, boldly bearing Up against a lowly state.

'Mid the carnage and the rattle-'Mid the stirring shout and cry-On the gory field of battle, Courage it may need to die.

But, beneath a weight of trouble, None to cheer us or relieve; Doomed with we and want to struggle-'Tis a braver thing TO LIVE. And the gallant heart that ever

Vict'ry gains in such a strife, Rising by his stern endeavor, Higher in the scale of life;

Striving on and cheering other, Reaching nearer to the goal; Teuching its despairing brother True suc es, is in the soul;

In that soul of fixed defiance Gainst the worst that fate can do, In that soul of self reliance, With each effort we review;

Truly wins the hero's laurel, Triumphing for human kind, And his life's impressive moral. Lives to sway the common mind, Valor this no kings are knighting-Yet, with toil his arm imbrowns, He for man a cause is fighting Worth a pyramid of crowns.

HOTEL LIFE.

We were told the following story day or two since, by a gentleman, who, we presume, was on the spot at or about the time of its occurrence. We publish it for the benefit of those gentle tel in the village of New York. The joke is too good to be lost: "John!"

"Yes, sir." . Carriage at the door!

John ran to the door and returned with a large trunk, apparently not very heavy-behind was a gentleman, whose external apperance was decidedly a 'millionaire.' He entered his name simply Mr. Slide; New York-laying Magazines made up of selections from foreign down his pen, he said-

"Landlord, I want the very best ac commodations your house will afford- tee that they are established on a firm basis the best for my money. I'd like a par. and will be continued without interruption. lor and a bed-room on the same floor." 'That you can have,' said our worthy host of the Astor.

'John.'

'Yes, sir.' Everything being now fairly arranged, of their class. BLACKWOOD, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, main our gentleman, Mr. Slide, was shown tains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time to his room by the servant John, which unusually attractive, from the serial works of he occupied unmolested for the space Balwer and other literary notables, written for of ten days, ordering everything which the most fastidious taste desired; wines of the very best and choicest brands were ordered and sent up to him; meals that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as The Caxton's " and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and furnished in his own apartments; extra other serials of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this servants were at his call, &c.

Astor thinking this small payment pre ent his bill, accordingly, ordered For any two it made up and presented it in person. For any taree On entering his room, our host found For Blackwood's Magazine

"Good morning, Mr. Slide," says our Adiscount of twenty-five percent from the worthy host.

plied Mr. Slide - very glad to see you, of one Review will be sent to one address for have not taken any of the Balsam since been excellently accommodated; never 49; 4copies of the four Reviews and Black 1846, because my health is so good as better in my whole life; first rate house, wood for $30; and so on this; good table, good wines good servants, very attentive, will send all my friends here; will, surely; really, sir late law been reduced on an average about forty per cent.! never was so well treated for my money -have had every luxury which heart could wish, wants been satisfied;" our host but off his adulations by presenting Over 1500 & not exceeding 1500 " 18" Over 1500 & not exceeding 2500 " 27"

"I thought I would hand in your bill Over 566 & not exceeding 500 miles, 4 cts pe Over 566 & not exceeding 1500 " 8 " Over 1500 & not exceeding 2000 " 12 " 'My bill, did you say?' queried M1. At those rates no objection should be made Slide, 'my bill! Why, sir, I have paid as herefusore, to receiving the works by mail -have paid all I agreed!"

'To whom did you pay? 'Sir. I paid your servant, Joha; I gave ne always addressed, post-paid, to the Publishhim fifty cents, and told him to hand ers it to you, let's see; yes it was day before it to you, let's see; yes it was day before mb23 Entrance 54 Gold street.

Sesterday. This was every cent I had N. B.-L. S. & Co. have recently published. not pay-sorry you expect it."

At this stage of proceedings, our host or the mail, $5, of the Astor began to see his position, and cut Mr. Slide short by telling him the joke was so well played off he would give him his bill and fifty cents, provided he would call upon Mr. Jennings, Land; an abundance of valuable Timber, and of the City Hotel, and play the same joke on him.

'My good sir, I will do any thing for on, Esq., is authorized to sell. you; you have been so very kind; any not do that; it would not be fair-Mr. Munfordsville, and within two miles of the Jennings gave me fifty cents and told me proposed Railroad from Louisville to Nashville, —120 acres cleared and in a high state of cultivation.—Buildings convenient and comforta-

'John?'

'Yes, sir.' 'Take this getleman's baggage from him wherever he wishes to go-free.' acres cleared-soil productive.—Improvement convenient and comfortable. Price $1,000. sliding-up Broadway.

"Not far from this place," writes a correspondent from Ridgefield, (Conn.) Timber abundant, and convenient. Price 'lived a small Connecticut farmer, who $2,000. ed in this part of the State, we feel con- to bear,' said Mr. S-; 'your loss is ing man, the tears trickling from his eyes: 'I would rather have lost two of my best -cows!'

"In the same neighborhood, 'the parson' and his lady were one day making friendly calls on some of their more remote parishioners. They drove up to In short, this Balsam is peculiarly a- and Consumption. a small house where there happened to dapted to every disease of the Lungs This remedy contains the extraordihad been 'in the suds' all day, and a bro-ther, making shoes in the garret. The Wild Cherry has long been known to and embodied in their utmost power in girl came running down stairs in her possessimportant medicinal properties. this article.

SCHOENBURGEER NAILS, assorted, in store J. M. WILSON.

Farm for Sale.

THE tract of Land belonging to Thos. W. Riley, Esq., adjoining Turner Wilson, on the North side of the Beech Fork, known as the "Walker J. WOOD WILSON, Agent, (*OLDEN Syrup, Sugar House and Plantation Molasses, in barrels and half barrels, in stor-and for sa e by J. M. WILSON.

FRESH FIGS just received and for sale by JASPER M. WILSON.

NUTMEG, DAIRY, FARM And Western reserve Cheese, a splendid article, in store, and for sale by

J. M. WILSON. jy 27 BACON AND LARD, For sale in quantities to suit purchas

J. M. WILSON. THE

GREAT BRITISH QUARTERLIES BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,

servative.]
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, [Whig]
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, [Free Ch'h
THE WESTWINSTER REVIEW, [Liberal,] BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE

[Tory.] These Reprints have now been in successful speration in this country for TWENTY YEARS and their circulation is constantly on the increase notwithstanding the competition the ucounter from American periodicals of imilar class and from numerous Echectics and periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the in telligent reading public, and affords a guaran Although these works are distinguished b the shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to politica subjects. It is their LIFERARY character which gives them their chief value, and in that they field county, Ohio, and brother of 'Maj. stand confessedly far above all other journals General Sanderson,' as officer in the country have to be reprinted by those publish

"Good morning - good morning!" re four or more copies of ary one or more of the good. Reduced Postage.

For Blackwood's Magazine.

For a Review.

and thus ensuring their speedy, safe, and regular delivary, OrRemittonces and communications should 79 Fulton Street, New York, Entrance 54 Gold street. -all I had when I come here! I told you I wanted the best accomodation for my money; I supposed all along I was having it. This bill, really sir, I can-Price, in muslin binding, $6; in pper coverss susceptible of being made a beautiful and profitable farm. Price $3,000. Sylvester John 206 Acres authorised to sell.

LAND FOR SALE.

330 Acres

1,800 Acres

In Gravson County, on Rough Creek. Seve ral tenements. Portions of it very rich soil Two of the best Mill Seats on the Creek .-

February 10, 1853.—$5*

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

The best remedy ever known to man! Bronchitis, Influenza, Bleeding' of the Lungs, Difficult'Breathing, Liver Affections, Pain or Weakness of the Breast or Side, First stages Consumption, & c., & c., & c.

soiled habiliments, and apologized for This fact is familiar to every matron in By a nice chemical process, every-24 BBLS TELEGRAPH FLOUR in store and declare that even Consumption could be cured by that alone. In other hands, again, it was nearly valueless, owing, no doubt, to their ignorance in prepar-of these two substances are, now, for of sight, weakness of limbs, &c. M ACKEREL—Nos 1, 2 and 3, in bbls and half bbls—just received and for sale by jy 27

J. M. WILSON.

To convince all unbelievers that our theory is really Hobensack's Liver Pills: performed by this wonderful medicine.

Two lives saved by the use of only three Gents:-The "Dr. Wist ar's Balsam of in cash or groceries Wild Cherry" that I bought of you, has been of such signal benefit in my family, that I wish to make its virtues known for the benefit of the public.

My wife took cold at the time of her confinement, which settled on her lungs Important Reduction in the Rates of Postage The physicians pronounced her case 'rocks' generally—and most particular ly for the amusement of our worthy hosts of the Astor House and City Hoconsumption. She had profuse night Balsam of Wild Cherry," and three bottles effected an entire cure with her Any person wishing to buy a farmwould do wel and the child both.

I have no doubt that they would have now been in their graves if they had not have used Wistar's Balsam of Wild SETH R. SEARCY. Cherry.

Seth R. Searcy, whose name is above, is a man of as much veracity as any in HARCOURT, HOWARD & Co.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE. Robert Sanderson, Justice of the Peace in Rush Creek township, Fairfield county, Ohio, and brother of 'Maj. war of 1812, cured of Consumption by the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild

Rush Creek township, Fairfield Co.,)

Dear Sir: - As I consider that my life has been prolonged by my being cured and of Consumption by the use of Dr. Wisof Consumption by the use of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I will state the symptoms of my case, that JAS. W. ROWLAND. SANDERS SHANKS. others similarly afflicted may be in-At the expiration of ten days, our ers from the pages of Blackwood after it has others similarly afflicted may be ingentlemen handed his servent John a been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that duced to try this invaluable remedy. fifty cent piece; requesting him to give Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine I experienced great difficulty in breathit to the landlord. Here matters stood may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS of the landlord in the landlord in the land lord in the land lord. Here matters stood of these fascinating tales. with severe pain in my side and breast, might possibly be a hint for him to Forany one of the four Reviews - $3.00 accompanied by a very bad cough; was pre ent his bill, accordingly, ordered Forany two do. - 5.00 very restless at nights, and had great do. - 7.00 night sweats, perspiring, I should say. 8,00 at least two gallons a night, wetting Mr. Slide seated in the rocking chair. For Blackwood's Magazine . 3.00 the bed completely through. I had not with his feet resting in a smaller one. with his feet resting in a smaller one, For Blackwood and the four Reviews, . 10.00 been able to work for years, but I was beside him was a table with three bottles of excellent old wine—his favorite brand, a few segars, &c.

Payments to be made in all cases in advance.

Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

Clubbing.

Payments to be made in all cases in advance, when I commenced using Wistar's Ballon and a few segars, &c.

The payments to be made in all cases in advance, when I commenced using Wistar's Ballon and a few segars, &c.

Clubbing. sam of Wild Cherry. I have used in all 13 bottles, and I am now free from Wilson & Cox. Possession will be given above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering all those complaints, for my health is not to require any medicine. But if 1 The postage on these Periodicals has by the have any return of my former symptoms. I should use Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I procured the medicine agents in Lancaster, Ohio.

ROBERT SANDERSON. Wild Cherry has a fac simile of the signature of Henry Wistar, M. D., Philadelphia, and Sanford and Park, on a finely executed steel engraved wrapper. No other can be genuine.

CF Price $1 per bottle-six bottles for $5. Sold by J. D. PARK, Cin., O.

Northeast corner of Fourth and Walnut Also sold by D. J. Wood, Bardstown; always be supplied. Haven; A. S. Burleigh, Shepherdsville; in the West. J. W. Showalter, Mt. Washington.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Clergyman.

An old and valuable subscriber, has at all times of the most valuable imporsent us'a certificate from one of his tance. I take it for granted that eve-Parishioners, which he wishes published ry person will do all in their power to the signature "J. N. HOBENSACK," for the benefit of his neighbors, and the save the lives of their children, and upon each box, as all others are worthcommunity at large, It states on au- that every person will endeavor to pro- less imitations. thing you wish; but really, sir, I can- In Hart County, on Green River, adjoining thority that needs no confirmation, the motetheir own health at all sacrifices. Agents wishing new supplies, and all particulars of a remarkable cure from I feel it my duty to solemnly assure you others wishing to become agents, must Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, an article we that WORMS, according to the opin- address the Proprietor, J. N. HOBEN. have already taken occasion to notice, ion of the most celebrated Physicians, SACK, at his Laboratory, No. 120, ble. Price $2,000. J. W. Barrett, Esq., is and which we have reason to believe is are the primary causes of a large ma- North Second Street, Philadelphia. worth notice. This sufferer had been jority of diseases to which children and Sold by all Druggists and Merchants No. - and order a carriage, and take In Hardin County, on Meeting Creek-150 Cold and Cough, caused by overexertion petite continually changeable from one Pamphlets giving certificates of cures at a fire, nearly three years since, and kind of food to another, Bad Breath, performed in different sections of the ture grave. Many of the remedies of Belly. Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse the day and the advice of eminent irregular-remember that all these derelief, when he was induced to try the apply the remedynot admit the full particulars, but we earnestly invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another vegetable substances, being perfectly part of our paper .-- Christian Chroni. safe when taken, and can be given to

Consumption! - Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is just the remedy that a pure minded, unprejudiced man, thoroughly acquainted with every system of practice, and well acquaintad with the whole Materia Medica, and experienced E general practice, would recommend as the best possible remedy, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma; Bronchitis be home only a lass of seventeen, who and Liver, which is produced by our nary medicinal virtues of the Wild her appearance thus: 'Hope you won't our land, and physicians often prescribe thing deleterious or useless is rejected, be skairt: I see you gitting' out o' the it in different forms for a variety of waggin, and I told told Jo I was comin' complaints. Tar, also, has been equal- ordinary and truly efficacious remedy tened in the intestines and stomach, to any similar compound ever yet introduced.

ifuge composed of Caster oil, Calomel, must be pursued, it would therefore be 3 ing and administering it-a difficulty &c., are not aware, that while they ap proper to take 6 or 8 of my Liver Pills, The extraordinary medicinal powers series of diseases, such as salivation, loss the Worm, which must be taken physician:

in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines have never been known to fail in curing your Sarsaparille upon my little daughter - and permanent cure of Liver Complaint By a nice chemical process, everything to which we ask the attention of all the most obstinate cases of TAPE She is now eight years of age. From her in- from the use of this remedy. We are deleterious or useless is rejected, so directly interested in their own as well WORM. that what remains in the most extraor. as their Children's health, In Liver dinary and truly efficacious remedy for Complaints and all disorders arising all kinds of pulmonary and liver diseas. from those of a bilious type, should Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver derful effects. Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the proprietor, J. N. HOBENsack, as none else are genuine.

J. M. WILSON.

Farm for Sale. ME Farm I now live on, 6 miles from Bardstown, on the Shepherdsville road, is or sale. Said farm contains 150 Acres; about one half enclosed and in good repair, good Dwelling house and Kitchen, large doub oen Barn, Blacksmith Shop, and all other le home. Apple and Peach Orchard of choic known to fail; also, first rate well water near the house; about 75 acres heavy timbered land to call and examine for themselves before the purchase elsewhere, as I am determined to giv a good bargain. Possession would be given it 15 days after a purchase is made, if required feb17 tf HENRY STREIT.

Hewitt's Daguerrean Gallery LOUISVILLE, KY.

NEXT TO NORTHERN BANK, CORNER OF FIFTH AND this country, and a man of good judg- MAIN, AND OPPOSITE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL OFFICE. ment, and we place entire reliance on EWETT'S old friends in Bardstown and his statement. vicinity will please call and see him when Louisville, "the latch string is never pulled J. M. HEWETT, | Operators. T. F. BROWN,

> House and Lot for Sale. WISH to sell my house and lot situate a id property will be sold on reasonable terms JAMES B. SLACK.

> > Life Insurance.

THE Lives of White Men and Negroes insu

On the most favorable terms in one of the safest and most responsible companies in the Union. S CARPENTER, 17, Agent Of Union Mutual Life Ins Co.

ROWLAND & CO., Wholesale Grocers, and Dealers in Ba con, Lard, Flour, Hides, Tallow, &c. Southwest corner of Main and 2d sts., LOUISVILLE, KY.,

VILL pay the highest prices, in cash, for Pacon; Lard; Feather's; Flax-Seed; nd Co. ntry Produce generally.
ROWLAND & CO. Louisville, Nov. 4, 1852-3m

Merchants! Merchants! FOR RENT. The well-known ol stand of John McMeekin, account of Main and Arch streets in Bardstown, Ky., lately occupied by MARY D. MCMEEKIN.

LIVERY STABLE, BY JOHN H. PAYNE & CO., Arch Street.

BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY. THIS EXTENSIVE ESTABLISH-Our

HORSES ARE VERY SUPERIOR. WE HAVE New Hacks, Buggies, and Harness, can be accomodated at All hours on reasonable terms:

$500 CHALLENGE.

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of the people is reduced very low from the effects of a adults are liable. If you have an ap- in the United States. from which it was evident to his friends Pain in the Stomach, Picking at the country, by the above medicines, can that he was fast hastening to a prema Nose, Hardness and Fullness of the be had gratis of the agents. Physicians had all failed to afford him note Worms, and you should at once

Hobensack's Worm Syrap.

the most tender infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bowel Com-THE BEST POSSIBLE REMEDY FOR Plaints and Diarrhwa have made them Compound Sirup of Sarsaparilla and weak and debilitated, the Tonic properties of my Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catait stands without an equal in the cata-logue of medicine, in giving tone and interests of individuals and cliques. And even strength to the Stomach, which makes then the dazzling splendor of outward show it an Infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing Thus it is we see Mesmerism, Clairvoyance, cures performed by this Syrup after and Spiritua Rappings, absorbing too much of Physicians have failed is the best evi-dence of its superior efficacy over all ings, even to the dethroning of their sa preme

THE TAPE WORM.

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human early grave. In order to destroy this state of the blood Thousands of Parents who use Verm. Worm, a very energetic treatment in doses of two table spoon-fulls three of these two substances are, now, for the first time, combined and embodied In another column will be found the times a day. These directions followed this medium to inform you of the success of the su

READ THE FOLLOWING!

true, we refer to a few cases of cures Be not deceived," but ask fo many thousands who has seen its won-tude to you, the inventor of a highly valuable medicine, prompts this humbottles of Wistar's Balsam of

WILD CHERRY!

Mr. Eden, Ky., July 24, 1852.

Messrs. Harcourt Howard & Co
Gents:—The "Dr. Wist ar's Balsam of Grands of Gents of the highest price will be given in cash or groupries."

Wanted the figure of the faculty as an arms of the faculty as a faculty as an arms of

A daughter of ours became seriously diseased. Her symptoms were alarming, but her nother at once sought for a remedy for Worms Having obtained yours, by the time she had taken half a bottle, O' Sir, the joy it gave an affectionate mother, to see the improvement i er child, she being about five or six years old . She passed an immense quantity of Worms her sickly countenance now brightened her spirits now returned, and in a short time a ovely child, threatened with decline and death, now gave promise of health. Thanks to a kind estored the child. With confidence I recommend it to all parents whose children are suffering with Worms. JAS B BOWEN, Min-ter of the Gospel, Late Pastor of the Southampton Baptist Church.

CAUTION!-Remember, then, Pacults, and all others, that HOBENSACK'S the World is the Great Arabian WORM SYRUP is the only Medicine in use ill not disagree with the most delicate Stom ch. Be careful you get the genuine e that the signature, "J. N. HOBEN SACK," is on every bottle.

Hobensack's Liver Pills. a filterer to purify the blood, or giving of the age, and no one would ever allow himself to be without this sovereign balm, who had symptom that might indicate a wrong the most respectable persons, of cores effected action of the Liver. These Pills being by this celebrated medicine, which surely are composed of ROOTS and PLANTS furnished by nature to heel the sick; ficates of ril adhatism cured after the patient of the patient o namely, 1st, an EXPECTORANT, and suffered everything but death for five to dences of merit."

which augments the Secretion from the twenty years. Also cases of paralysis, or loss Evidence upon ter. 2d, an ALTERATIVE, which friends looked upon them spalled, while physically and the state of the state o changes in some inexplicable and insensible manner the certain morbid action of the systen. 3d, a TONIC. which gives tone and strength to the and reptiles, sore throat, soce or weak eye nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all parts of the body. 4th, a control of the body. 4th, a control of the allments of the parts of the profest borses and cattle, such as sweeny, farey, sprains CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect bruises, wounds, stiff neck and joint lameness harmony with the other ingredients, swellings, galls or chafes, sore eyes, partial and operating in the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matterand purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores hand, ready for any emergency.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to the most dangerous of all the counterfeits, te which you are subject. In obstructions cause his having the name of Pairell, many either total or partial, they have been will buy it in good faith without the knowledge found of inestimable benefit, restoring that a counterfeit exists, and they will pe their functional arrangements to a mixture has wrought its evil effects. other fluids so effectually to put to H. G. Farrell, sole inventor and proprietor. flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularaties, as headache, Agencies must be addressed. Be sure you get of Messrs. Fall and McCracken, your MENT is now thoroughly furnished and from female irregularaties, as headache, ready for the accommodation of customers. giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in it with the letters H. G. before Farreil's, thus Sixth, Philadelphia; and by respectable The genuine Wistar's Balsam of RIDING, BUGGY & HACK public as the best Pills for all diseases, upon the following.

MEDICAL EVIDE NCE.

We, the undersigned Physicians, havand feel fully confident that we can satisfy ing had the receipt of their manufacture the most fastidious. Those who wish to submitted to us for inspection, say, take Pleasure Rides, or Long Journeys that the ingredients of which they are composed makes them the best Pills in use for all diseases of the Liver, impu-Sts.—entrance on Walnut street—to whom all orders must be addressed.

Persons desiring STAGES, HACKS rities of the blood,&c. We say this not only from our own judgement, but also from that of the best medical au-Give us a call, and you will find that thority of the United States. All dis- And by regular agents throughout the United THOSE indebted to me either by note or Rogers, Hodgensville; S. Johnson, N. we have one of the most extensive Stables eases requiring the use of an Alterative, States. JOHN PAYNE & CO. | Diaphoretic and Purgative Medicine, | OF Proce 25 and 50 cents, and $1 per bot-treated with the above Pills with the most satisfactory success. GEORGE WOOD, M. D.

F. CROWLEY, M. D. L. BOWEN, M. D. Purchase none but those having AGENTS. D. J. WOOD, Bardstown, Ky. J. M. Mills, Frankfort, and Drug.

gists generally over the State. Price-Each 25 Cents.

general State Agents. nov25ly WONDERFUL PROOF!

Dr. Blackwell's

Iris Versicola. N this age of humbuggery, it behooves every in the further extension of that waich is useful we would recommend to their serious consider skilful physicians have failed.

Dr. Blackwell's Compound Sirup of tion of invalids. Possessing great virsystem, it grows to an almost indefi-and request the same investigation, by way of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising trial, that has been extended to other objects the most searching powers in weakness jest as I was, for I was too tired to strip!'

Strip!'

A BBLS TELEGRAPH FLOUR in store and LASPER M. WILSON

A SPERM, WILSON

To all kinds of pulmonary and liver discussed the health so sadly as to cause of the following Diseases: Scrofula. St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those of Kings Evil, Dyspersia, Jaundice, Female Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Swelled declare that even Consumption could as I was, for I was too tired to live intertures and design the metalth so sadly as to cause of the following Diseases: Scrofula. St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those of Kings Evil, Dyspersia, Jaundice, Female Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Swelled declare that even Consumption could be considered.

In testsmony of the eminen TRESH ORANGES and Lemons just arrived now entirely obviated by patient experiment.

The data daministering it—a dimentive of the patient, they are now entirely obviated by patient experiment.

The data daministering it—a dimentive of the patient, they are now entirely obviated by patient experiment.

The data daministering it—a dimentive of the patient, they are now entirely obviated by patient experiment.

The data daministering it—a dimentive of the patient, they are now entirely obviated by patient experiment.

The data daministering it—a dimentive of the patient of Louisville, Jone 3, 1852.

Dr. Blackwell-Dear Sir: I wish through fancy she has been troublee with a breaking out over her body, resembling Scrofula. At times her arms and legs were covered over with large And you cannot be indifferent to this running sores. Towards the close of last win-A GREAT PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD, I immediate DR. J. N. HDBENSACK—Sir—GratiBefore the first was used up I could see a marked change for the BETTER. Continued its use fris Verslenda, and consider it an excellent at- from experience the salutary effect they J. M. BUCKLY, M. D. have upon weak systems," Resp'fully. Prepared and for sale wholesale and re-by VAUGHN & BLACKWELL, Louis-

Bardstown. H. G. Farrell's

The most extraordinary discovery in which it came induced us to make in-Remedy for Man and Beast.

DR. D. H. COX,

W E daily hear of the most astonishing truly say, from our own knowledge, that no ally surprising. It calms and strengthmedicine ever discovered has performed the fistula, poll-evil, ringbone and spavin, it nvariably stop their further progress. family should keep this valuable medicine o

Look out for Counterfeits! The public are cautioned against another counterfeit, which has lately made its appear-the wrapper, all are counterfeits.

D. J. WOOD. Wholesale and Retail Agent, Bardstown, Ky.

J. F. Senour, Elizabethtown, Ky. Wilson & Burba, Hodgenville, Ky. L. Hoglan & Co., Shepherdsville. Thomas Conn, Deatsville. S. R. Samuels, Cone Spring.

G. W. Taylor, Springfield.

LIVER COMPLAINT. JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE

KIDNEYS, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver and Stomach, such as Constipation, in ward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, disgust for Food, Fullness, or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swiming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying posture, Dots or Webbs before the sight, Fever and dull Pain in Sutcliffe & M'Allister, Louisville, the Head, Deficiency or Perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirit, can be effectually cured by DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS.

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. Jackson AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

120, Arch Street, Philadelphia, Their power over the above diseases is not excelled-if equalled-by any other intelligence. All feeling an interest in their own, and the welfare of the community, and preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after These Bitters are worthy the atten-Sarsaparilla and Iris Versicola, tues in the rectification of diseases of and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, sale, certain, and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced. From the "Boston Bee."

The Editor said, Dec. 22d.

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Ner-These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an affectual convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly regains vigor -a fact worthy of great consideraappeal. Humanity calls upon you to lo your duty. It is only one out of the many thousands who has seen its wonsafety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use. "Scorr's Weekly," one of the best

Here is the opinion of a Physician o male weakness. As such is the case, the city, whose statement cannot be called in we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much Dr. I. P. Blackwell-Sir: In reply to yours sickness. Persons of debilitated conwill state, that I have examined your receipt or your Compound Strup of Susaparilla and tageous to their health, as we know

More Evidence.

The Hon- C. H Hineline, Mayor of the city of Camden, N. J., says: "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS :-We have seen many flattering notices Celebrated Arabian Liniment. of this medicine, and the source from quiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were induced to use it, and say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive cures being effected by that great and upon diseases of the liver and digestive popular-medicine, the genuine II. G. FAR. RELL'S ARABIAN LINIMENT, and we can exerts upon nervous prestration is reens the nerves, bringing them into a No part of the system is more liable makes it so truly valuable. It is therefore "If this medicine was more generally to disease than the Liver, it serving as bailed by the suffering as the greatest blessing used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, livany wrong action of the Liver effects and its wonderful potency in relieving pain, it of real and imaginary diseases emthe other important parts of the sys- however severe, in a few moments time. We anate. Have them in a healthy conditem, and results variously in Liver carnestly desire you to call upon the agent, who will furnish you, free of charge, a smell book containing, besides other valuable information, a large list of certificates from manyor medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a

> Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is; that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preserable to calomel in all hideous diseases-the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the Genuine, They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON, upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, with-

For sale Wholesale and Retail at THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE. No. 120 Arch Street, one door below the side, back, &e., and offered the H.G. FARRELL'S-and his signature on the dealers generally throughout the coun-PRICES REDUCED.

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great restorative powers. Single Bettles 75 Cents. Also for sale by D. J. WOOD, Bardstown, Ky. Wholesale Agents for Ky., Sutcliffe, Mc. Alister, & Co., Louisville, Ky.

Money Wanted. account, are requested to make immedi-

J. B. WATHEN.